The City of Wilmont received a matching funds grant from the Minnesota Twins to bring Butts Probst Field back to life.

So things are in motion. We have ordered a new backstop, playground equipment is being assembled, bathrooms will be cleaned and painted and shingles will be replaced where needed.

It is exciting, so we are asking help with matching this

Since it is baseball season, a couple of pictures pertaining to baseball are in order. These two photos were taken around 1960 when Tony Oliva, one of the Minnesota Twins great players, came to Wilmont to the OLGC church basement to promote the Twins and baseball to area youth. In the first picture Tony is with Dave Schlichte (son of Lyle & Arlene), and the boy with his back to the camera is Duane Balster (son of Larry & Lorraine). In the second picture Tony is with Michael Sieve (? not sure) (son of Carl & Irene) and Don Schlichte (son of Lyle & Arlene). The boy in the background may be Dave Koehn, brother of Donna Bertrand. (Don't see many young boys in suit any more.) If I am wrong as to the identities of the young people in these photos, contact me at 507-360-1135 or email aubrake@gmail.com

Rick & Kerri Knips of Lismore applied for Century Farm status when they gained ownership of the acreage and farmland in early January. The youngest child of the late Earl & Arlene Knips, Rick was always a farmer. Rick & Kerri are currently grain farming, although they once had hogs and cattle. Their two children, Sydney and Cole, will have the chance to continue the Knips legacy on the farm if they choose to do so. Congratulations to the Knips family on being a Century Farm!!

Wilmont

Our Lady of Good Counsel Church was the scene of a pretty wedding on Monday morning, February 1st, when Inez Marie Bruns became the wife of Leo G. Balster. The nuptial high mass was read by Rev. J. H. Steger at 9:30. The bride wore a pretty aqua wool, street-length dress with brown accessories and a corsage of white and pink roses. She carried a crystal rosary, a gift from the groom. Her sister, Lorraine Bruns, was her bridesmaid. She wore a gold, wool street-length dress with brown accessories and a corsage of talisman and white roses. Virgil Balster, nephew of the groom, was best man. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bruns of St. Kilian. For the past five years she has been employed at the home of Mr. C. W. Becker. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Balster, Sr. and is engaged in farming. Following the ceremony, a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents. The newlyweds will be home on a farm south of town, following a short honeymoon. Congratulations are extended to the young couple by their host of friends here.

A quiet wedding was solemnized at the Presbyterian parsonage in Wilmont at 11 a.m., February 3rd by Rev. James Young, when Martha Lutterman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Lutterman of Wilmont, became the bride of Floyd H. Sibson, son of Mrs. Nora Sibson of Kenneth. The couple was attended by Henry Lutterman, brother of the bride, and Mrs. Russel Aanenson of Hardwick, sister of the bridegroom. The bride was attired in an Alice Blue street-length dress trimmed in gold. She wore a gold necklace, a gift of the bridegroom. Her attendant wore a dark blue dress with matching accessories. After the ceremony, a wedding dinner was served for immediate members of the family at the home of the bride's parents. The couple will be at home on a farm near Kenneth. Congratulations are extended to the newlyweds by host of friends.

Rev. Paul Britz read the mass at the St. Columba Church at Iona on Thursday morning, February 4th, which united Verna Scott of Iona and Raymond Klenken in the holy bonds of matrimony. The bride wore a gown of white satin made with a shirred bodice with inserts of lace and leg-of-mutton sleeves. Her veil fell from a tiara of seed pearls and she carried a bouquet of roses. Margaret Schettler, maid of honor, wore a floor length dress of pink taffeta with a chapel veil. She carried a bouquet of mixed flowers. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Scott of Iona. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Klenken of Wilmont. A wedding dinner was served to about 25 guests at the home of the bride's parents. The newlyweds will make their home on a farm near here after March 1st. Congratulations are extended to the young couple by host of friends here and at Iona.

There will be another card party and dance at the school gym on Wednesday evening, February 10th. Music will be furnished by Luchtel's Orchestra. Everyone is invited.

Word was received here that Ray Kremer was transferred from Madison, Wisconsin to Longley Field, Virginia.

Pvt. Frank Krell was a Saturday supper guest at the home of his sister, Mrs. George Probst.

Mr. and Mrs. John Pacholl and son were Tuesday evening visitors in the Virgil Viessman home.

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Viessman and the latter's mother, Mrs. Chris Giesen of Readin, visited Sunday with Fenella Halberts of Reading, who is confined to a Worthington hospital. Fenella, who is the 15-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Halberts, underwent a major operation there Saturday morning.

A family gathering was held Thursday evening in the home of Mrs. Barbara Probst, in honor of her son, Pvt. Adolph Probst, and his wife. Her 8 sons and their families were present, namely: Mr. and Mrs. Paul Probst, Mr. and Mrs. George Probst, Mr. and Mrs. Nick Probst, Mr. and Mrs. John Probst, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Probst, Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Probst, Henry and William Probst. From Nobles County History by Arthur P. Rose 1907

Peter Lebens is one of the early day settlers of Willmont Township, having taken the claim to the farm upon which he now resides thirty years ago. His farm consisted of 320 acres of land on sections 28 and 33. Mr. Lebens is a Hollander by birth. He was born March 1, 1851, the son of John N. and Annie (Kakals) Lebens. The former died in Scott County, Minn., in 1898, aged 88 years, the latter in Carver County, Minn., at the age of 56 years. Peter came to the United States with his parents in 1863, when he was 12 years of age, and located in Carver County, Minn. There he was raised on his father's farm and there he made his home until 1880. During the last three years of his residence there he rented his father's farm and engaged in business on his own account. In October, 1878, Mr. Lebens came to Nobles County and filed on the southeast quarter of section 28, Willmont Township. Immediately after making the filing he returned to his home, but came back again in the following spring with a brother. He broke 30 acres of his claim, erected a sod shanty that year, but did not make his permanent residence here that year. In the spring of 1880 he brought his family to the new home, erected a frame building and began farming. On that farm he has ever since resided. Mr. Lebens was married at Shakopee, Minn., Oct. 20, 1875 to Margaret Thole. She was born in Westphalia, Germany, Oct. 15, 1854 and died at the family home in Willmont Township Feb. 20, 1892. This union resulted in the birth of the following children: Annie (Mrs. Peter Bonselet) of Watertown, S.D.; John, marshal of Willmont village; Joseph of Lismore; Lizzie of Iowa; Herman of North Dakota; Henry of Los Angeles, Cal.; Peter of North Dakota; William of North Dakota. The second marriage of Mr. Lebens occurred in St. Paul Jan. 25, 1894 when he wedded Maggie Schnier, who was born in Scott County, Minn., in October, 1858. To them have been born the following children: Clara, Mary, John (deceased), Maggie, Frances, and Charles. The family are members of the Catholic church of St. Kilian. Mr. Lebens served as supervisor of Willmont Township two years and was road overseer three years.

This program is sponsored, in part, under the Federal Older Americans Act through a contract from a Minnesota regional Area Agency on Aging under an Area Plan approved by the MN Board on Aging.

Wilmont VFW post teamed up with the DAV (Disabled American Veterans) and have clothing drop-off boxes around the area— next to Wilmont Hardware, two by Ace Hardware in Worthington, one by Peterson Cleaning next to Graham Tire in Worthington and in Rushmore across from the bank.

Everyone's donations and help are greatly appreciated!

Donations help support our local VFW Post especially during the pandemic.

A Commitment To Agriculture

For years, area farmers have relied on us for their ag loans. We know agriculture and we work hard to understand each customer's individual needs.

We make loans for operating expenses, machinery, livestock and real estate. And, since we're a local independent bank, all loan decisions are made right here. If we can be of help to you, give us a call or stop in and see us.
