With the grant from the Minnesota Twins and donations from the local community we will have a place for our youth to play ball.

Your donations can be made out to Wilmont Booster club and mailed to the City Hall 316 4th Avenue Wilmont, MN 56185.

Many of our youth have expressed excitement at being able to play on a REAL ball diamond.

Thank you, Wilmont City Council

Can you take twenty minutes to pray with Ct. St. Bernard #886 Catholic Daughters? They will lead the Rosary on Wednesday nights during the month of October at St. Anthony's. October is Respect for Life month; there are so many things to pray about and people to pray for!

Everyone is invited to come pray with them at 6:30 p.m. on Wednesday nights.

Catholic Daughters of the Americas Ct. St. Bernard #886-Lismore will again support Socktober to help fulfill a need in our area. A tub is set up in the foyer of St. Anthony's Catholic Church to receive donations of new men's, women's, and children's socks.

What is Socktober?? In October 2011, creator Brad Montague realized there was a large homeless population in his hometown and he wanted to do something about it. He became aware that socks were the items least donated to homeless shelters. Brad took action, wishing people "Happy Socktober!" as he gave out socks on the streets. Word got around and people wanted to know how they could help. Since then, Socktober has exploded!

Tony & Darla Parsley of Adrian are collecting gently worn winter coats AND accepting any used clean mittens, hats, and boots. Items may be dropped at their home at 517 Maine Avenue. Check your closets!

JOHN "JACK" HENRY SLATER, age 83, of rural Rushmore, died Tuesday, October 19, 2021, at his home. He was born October 30, 1937, on the family farm south of Wilmont, to William and Elizabeth (Balster) Slater. He attended Our Lady of Good Counsel Catholic School.

Jack married the love of his life, LaVonne Johanning, on May 23, 1959 at St. Kilian Catholic Church. The couple lived and farmed on the same place Jack was born and lived his entire life.

He was a member of Our Lady of Good Counsel Catholic Church in Wilmont, where he served on the Parish Council as President. He also volunteered on the Calvary Cemetery Board, sang in the church choir, and was the church's first Eucharistic Minister. Jack was a member of the Knights of Columbus and the Catholic Order of Foresters. He gave 18 years of his time serving in various positions on the Adrian School Board, including Chairman of the Board. As President of the Wilmont Booster Club, he spearheaded the 75th year town celebration. Jack was instrumental in the organization of the Wilmont Family Recreation Center.

Jack was always up for an adventure, often the one to initiate spontaneous excursions. He always made people laugh with his pranks and jokes. He was an outdoorsman who loved hunting, snowmobiling, water skiing and riding & driving horses. Jack was skilled at woodworking and found joy in gifting his projects to his family. Another pleasure in life was traveling domestically and internationally to see God's creation. Jack cherished time with his grandchildren, always making time to attend their activities. There's no doubt that farming was his ultimate passion. You could often find Jack smiling ear to ear while digging in the dirt or running the combine. Even in his final hours, he was monitoring the progress of the harvest.

Carrying on Jack's legacy are his adored wife, LaVonne Slater, Rushmore; seven children, Mark (Leslie) Slater, Rushmore; Michael (Lynn Johnson) Slater, Wilmont; Gary (Teresa) Slater, Rushmore; Natalie (Randy) Reker, Adrian; Kent "Hopper" (Coreen) Slater, Rushmore; Eileen (Kyle) Heitkamp, Excelsior; and Mary (Zarir) Erani, Excelsior; twenty-two grandchildren, Libby, Max (Haley) & Marty Slater; Tom Slater; Katy (Kevin) Zogg, Natasha Slater, Nicole (Steve) Kelly & Matthew (Jackie) Slater; Taren, Jordan (Briana), Zach (Shelby) & Tony (Austyn) Reker; Trent, Jenna, Jesse (Megan) & Lexi Slater; Marshall, Hannah & Lincoln Heitkamp; Taeya (John) De Vries, Rainer & Aiden Erani; seven great-grandchildren, Kinsley & Brooks Slater; Mara Zogg; Braxton & Layne Reker; Sutton Reker; and Colt Slater; a brother-in-law, Edwin (Norma) Johanning, Worthington; and many nieces & nephews.

Welcoming him into heaven are his parents; an infant son, Carl in 1965; and a brother, Victor Slater. Visitation will be from 4-8 pm Friday at Our Lady of Good Counsel Catholic Church, in Wilmont, with Parish Prayers at 4 pm. Visitation also one hour prior to the service at the church on Saturday. Funeral Mass will be 10 am Saturday at Our Lady of Good Counsel Catholic Church, in Wilmont, officiated by Monsignor Richard Colletti. Burial will be in the Calvary Cemetery Wilmont. Dingmann Funeral Home, in Wilmont is in charge of arrangements.

Delores Jean Groenewold, age 81, of Lismore, died Saturday, October 16, 2021 peacefully at the Sunset Cottage in Worthington, Minnesota. She was born on February 6, 1940 to Gerrit and Viola Drost in Ocheydan, Iowa. She attended school at Melvin and Rushmore, graduating from Worthington H.S. in 1958.

She was united in marriage to Rodney Groenewold in 1960. The couple made their home in Rushmore until Rodney joined the Army Reserves. In 1962 the couple moved to their farm near Wilmont.

Delores began her banking career working Saturdays and summer vacations at the Sibley State Bank in 1957. She went to work at the First State Bank of Rushmore when Rodney left for the Army Reserves. In 1967 Delores began her long career at the First National Bank of Wilmont, later United Prairie Bank. This move allowed her to be closer to home since they started farming in March of 1962. She retired from banking in 2005 after 47 years. Retirement found her missing the many friendships she had cultivated at the bank. Delores then became a tour escort for the Reading Bus Company. She enjoyed many fun trips, special memories and made even more lifelong friendships along the way.

She was a member of the First Presbyterian Church in Rushmore until 1996 when they transferred their membership to the American Reformed Church in Worthington.

Delores found profound pleasure in her girls and her grandchildren; never missing a chance to attend a sporting event, concert or recital. She loved sprint car races, boating, snowmobiling and many card games with friends.

Left to cherish her memory are her beloved husband Rodney of 61 years. Their two daughters, Cheryl (Jeff) Minton of Estherville, Iowa and Charlene (Mike) Meyeraan of Hitterdal, Minnesota. Grandchildren Dustin (Cassie) Wagley of Jackson, Amanda (Brent) Harris of Lake Park, Iowa, Carlee (Steve) Moe of Osage, MN Trevor (Sam) Meyeraan of Pelican Rapids and Tyler (MacKensie) Meyeraan of Lake Park, MN Her great grandchildren Ella, Maddie, Hudson, Lidia and Ivy. Siblings: Sharon (Dennis) Wessels of Balaton, Marcia (Harvey) VanRuler of Rushmore, Linda, (Steve) Verdoorn of Mooresville NC, Garry (Gin) Drost of Rushmore, Verlis Drost of Rushmore. Sister-in-laws Marlene (Don) Rabenberg of Rushmore and Lisa (Duane) Drost of Sibley, Iowa and Brother-in-law Larry (Twyla) Rasmussen of Phoenix, Arizona -- along with many nieces and nephews.

Delores was preceded in death by her parents Gerrit and Viola Drost, in-laws Carl and Ella Groenewold, brothers Arvin and Duane Drost and her beloved sister Twyla Rasmussen.

Blessed be the memory of Delores.

Memorial service was held at the American Reformed Church, in Worthington, officiated by Pastor Alan Salwei. A private family burial of cremains will be at a later date.

Saturday, May 8, 1943 Somewhere in Africa Dear Pete: I received the paper and was very glad to get it. I sure hope you keep sending it to me. It helps a lot when a fellow gets the news from back home. Everything is the same here in Africa. I don't suppose you have a ball team this year. I see by the paper where all the boys that played are gone now. I haven't heard from the Iron Man for quite a while. Talk to him for me. I hope every is O.K. back there. If you have Eddie's address, please send it to me. I would like to write to him. Well, news is awful scarce, so will close for now. Here is hoping I see you all soon. Answer Soon. Say hello to Laura and Jimmy (Pete's children) for me. Your friend, Pvt. Paul Schissel

Leo O. Kuhl, son of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Kuhl, has completed his course of studies as an aviation mechanic in this school of the Army Air Forces Technical Training Command. His graduation from this technical school now fits him for airplane maintenance and he will be sent to some air base where he will assist in keeping America's Flying Fortresses in the air for Allied victory. In addition to completion of the schedule of academic and practical studies as an aviation mechanic, he has been thoroughly drilled in military tactics and defense and a course of physical training that has conditioned him to meet all requirements of an American soldier.

Pvt. Arnold Hoffman of Fort Leonard Wood, Mo., came Tuesday morning to attend the funeral of this grandfather, Herman Hebbelman.

Raymond Slater returned to Norfolk, Virginia Saturday to resume his Navy training, after visiting several days at his home and also attended the funeral of his grandmother, Mrs. Frank Balster, Sr.

Pfc. Cletus Broich returned to Atlantic Beach, Florida Thursday after spending a furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Nic Broich and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Matt Kremer received word that their son Pfc. Raymond J. Kremer of Langley Field, Va. won a sharp shooter's medal, getting 176 points out of 200. He was the highest in the class of 44 men.

Cpl. Fred Driessen of Tullahoma, Tenn. arrived here Wednesday morning to spend his furlough at the home of his mother, Mrs. Josephine Driessen and family and his wife.

Relatives and friends were shocked to hear of the passing of Herman Hebbelman on Saturday evening at his home here. Mr. Hebbelman was confined to his bed only 24 hours. He was stricken early Friday evening, death was due to infirmities of old age. Herman John Hebbelman was born January 18, 1857 at Hanover, Germany, son of John Bernard Hebbelman and Mary Kathryn Goeniger. When a young man he came to this country. On February 16, 1892 he was married to Anna Weber at St. Joseph's Church at Granville, Iowa. The lived at Granville, Iowa for several years and later moved here where they lived in Nobles County for 33 years and were engaged in farming. In 1929 they retired from farming and moved to their home in Wilmont. To this union 15 children were born, three of which died in infancy. They are Mary, (Mrs. John Hoffman); Mathilda, (Mrs. Fredo Hartman); Joe; John, (recently released from the Army); Eleanor, (Mrs. Charles Lais); Antoinette, (Mrs. Wm. Booker) all of Wilmont; Pfc. Anthony in the U. S. Army at Kodiak, Alaska; Therese, (Mrs. Therese Butler), Sedalia, Missouri; Al, Agnes, (Mrs. Lawrence Honermann) of Adrian; Sister Mary Laurentina, Winona, Minnesota; Frances, (Mrs. Henry Ella), of Slayton; all of whom were present except Anthony who was unable to come. Also surviving are his wife, 39 grandchildren; two great grandchildren; one sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Schwarz of Granville, Iowa and one brother-in-law, Matt Weber of Wilmont. On February 16, 1942 Mr. and Mrs. Hebbelman celebrated their golden wedding anniversary here at Wilmont. Mr. Hebbelman was a member of Our Lady of Good Counsel Church and of the St. Joseph Roman Catholic Protective Society of Granville, Iowa. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. John H. Steger Tuesday morning, May 25th at Our Lady of Good Counsel Church. Burial was made in the Wilmont Cemetery. Pallbearers were Tony Broich, Henry Lenz, Leo Hartman, John Krell, Matt Michels, and John Pacholl. Heartfelt sympathy is extended to the bereaved relatives in their sorrow.

The following business places have agreed to close at 12 o'clock noon, Monday, for the rest of the day in Observance of Memorial Day: Huisenga Store, George Sievers, Anton Bucher, C. W. Becker, Probst Bros. Implement, Broich Land Co., Sievers & Probst, Joe Clendenning, John Lebens, Scholtes Store, Liquor Store, Wm. Boecker, Wilmont Hardware, Brake & Johanning Imp. Paul Probst, Wilmont Farmers Elevator Co., E. A. Brown Elevator Co., John Pacholl, Peter Heinrichs, Scholtes Oil Co., P.J. Wagner All Banks in Nobles Co. & the Court House will be closed all day on Monday, May 31st. An order was received from the Post Office Department that in view of present conditions, May 31, 1943, would not be observed as a holiday by Post Offices and usual Postal Service will be provided.

The Wilmont Post Office has a large supply of application forms for War Ration Book No. 3, still on hand. Anyone failing to receive their card should call at the post office for one.

Ten pounds of sugar for each ration book holder has been made immediately available for home canning by the OPA. The sugar can be obtained with Stamps 15 and 16 in War Ration Book One. Each stamp is worth 5 pounds. Consumers who require more than 10 pounds per person for putting up fruits and berries may apply to their local ration boards for an additional allowance.

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Bunkers of Ruthton are the parents of a daughter born last week. Mrs. Bunkers is the former Dagney Moser.

Mrs. Emma Middendorf and daughters, Adeline, Leona, and Marie, Mrs. Josephine Johanning, and son, Cletus, and Mrs. Frank Johanning attended the graduation exercises of the St. Joseph's Catholic High School at Ashton, Iowa Tuesday evening. Rita Middendorf was a member of the class.

Wilbert Middendorf, David Schissel, and Virgil Shelquist, who have employment at St. Paul, spent a weekend at their homes here.

Cliff Moliert and his band will play for the dance here at the Pavilion on Friday, June 4th. Be sure and hear this outstanding band next Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Joens, Ben Farris, son Jack and daughter, Hazel, and Mr. and Mrs. Louie Rachuy drove to Sheldon, Iowa Friday where they attended the funeral of Mrs. Noack who was 30 years old and died Tuesday from complications of child birth. She formerly was Cleo Loafman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lou Loafman, who lived east of Wilmont a number of years ago. She is survived by her husband, a 9-year old daughter and the infant daughter, her parents, a sister Vida, and two brothers, Russel Loafman with the armed forces in New Guinea and Milo Loafman in a training camp in Texas. She was a frequent visitor here during the summer when her brothers were on the batteries for the Wilmont baseball team. Her father is the blind man who in 1933, accompanied by his dog, walked to the World's Fair in Chicago.

Lismore

Dr. and Mrs. E. M. Noethe of Wilmont and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Konz of Lismore went to Parker, S. Dakota Tuesday, where they attended the Bone's Annual Hereford Livestock sale. Several buyers from Lismore also attended. They reported two Hereford bulls were sold to buyers from Des Moines, Iowa and Wyoming for the price of $4200 and $4300 each. A crowd of 3000 people was in attendance.

St. Kilian

Cpl. Vic Loosbrock arrived here Monday from Camp Maxey, Texas to spend a furlough at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Emil Loosbrock.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Burns received word from their son, Cpl. Vincent Bruns, stating that he has been transferred to 386 Headquarters and Air Base Squadron and is now Automotive Base Technical Inspector at Carlsbad, new Mexico.

Mrs. Henry Fritz and infant son have returned to their home near St. Kilian from the Adrain Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Schroer are the parents of a son born last week.

ZACHARY TIMOTHY LOOSBROCK, age 25, of Maple Plain, MN died on Sunday, October 10, 2021, as a result of an automobile accident. He was born July 6, 1996, in Robbinsdale, MN to Timothy and Jean (Weidert) Loosbrock. He graduated from Champlin Park High School in 2014; and later from Alexandria Technical College.

Zach worked as a carpenter for Murdoff Construction in Maple Plain. He was a member of St. Vincent De Paul Catholic Church in Brooklyn Park. Zach loved the outdoors. He enjoyed hunting, fishing, kayaking and snowmobiling. Zach loved playing hockey and baseball, most recently adding co-ed softball to the mix. He loved his Chevy trucks, they were his pride & joy. His laugh was contagious to those around him and he had the softest of hearts for those he loved.

Zach is survived by his special friend, Hannah Koshiol; parents, Tim and Jean Loosbrock, Champlin; two sisters, Sarah (Eric Honebrink) Loosbrock, St. Paul, MN; and Jenna (Eric Ferguson) Loosbrock, Fargo, ND; grandparents, Jerome & Mary Weidert, Lismore; many uncles, aunts and cousins; and his yellow lab, Abby.

He was preceded in death by his infant sister, Emily in 1993; and his grandparents, Ralph & Helen Loosbrock.

Funeral Mass was held at St. Anthony Church, in Lismore, officiated by Monsignor Richard Colletti. Burial was at St. Anthony Cemetery.

Daniel Marvin Beerman was born to Marvin and Rosemarie Beerman on August 19, 1947, in Worthington, MN. The second oldest of 9 children, he grew up on a dairy farm near Brewster, MN, and began doing chores and milking cows at a young age. The love for the farm, for cattle, and for God's sovereignty over all things set his sights on one day owning his own farm and herd. Dan graduated from Brewster High School in 1965.

Dan was a lifelong learner, and gained much knowledge working alongside his father, who was a dairy farmer and mechanic. In his adult life, he loved using his abilities to repair cars, trucks, tractors (and the list goes on) not only for himself, but also for neighbors and friends.

Dan met the love of his life playing checkers (not Linda's favorite game) at a secret destination party for the youth group of Worthington Christian Church. A few months later, on a hayride, he always claimed she took his hand, and the rest was history. Dan and Linda Peters were married on August 2, 1968, in Worthington. In March of 1970, the couple moved south of Iona, MN, where they began their dairy farming adventure together. Dan loved his cows and treated them as friends. He looked forward to seeing them each morning to begin a new day. Dan milked cows for 56 years after beginning that chore on his father's farm at age 13. At the time of his passing, he was still actively farming and enjoying his small herd of stock cows.

In addition to his farming, Dan's life revolved around his faith and his family. He was baptized into Christ as a teenager and loved the work of the church. One young friend said recently that Dan's heart beat for Christ. He was a strong, godly man. Kindness and gentleness were part of his daily life. He was active in sharing his faith by teaching, leading, serving, and mentoring others coming behind him. He enjoyed fixing and maintaining the baptistry along with other various areas of the church. He loved to share God's Word; he filled the pulpit in surrounding communities, as needed, and was a member of the Gideons. One of his favorite things to do was to take communion to those who were shut-in or confined.

Dan and Linda enjoyed 53 years together, raising their family of four children, and several foster children. Over the years they enjoyed several trips throughout the United States and beyond. Dan thoroughly enjoyed time with family, especially his 15 grandchildren. Dan is survived by his wife Linda; daughter Ranell Beerman of Yuma AZ; Melissa (Ryan) Elder and their children Taylor, Alexis and Abigail of Burnsville, MN; Mark (Heather) Beerman and their daughters Shekinah, Ellyanna, Sophia, Natalia, Jordana, Estella and Acacia of Lewiston, MN; Peter (Krista) Beerman and their children Brayton, Ranissa, Tayden, Anayah and Selah of Slayton, MN; foster daughters Darla Halstead of Arapahoe, NE and Merrill Hinrichs of Ellsworth, MN, and foster son Brice Bergland of Slayton, MN.

Dan is also survived by siblings Judy (Darwin) Stahl, David (Debbi) Beerman, Bruce Beerman, Carolyn Beerman, Norma (Robert) Dittman, Brian (Jeanette) Beerman, brother in law Marc Postma, many nieces and nephews, and beloved family on the Peters' side. He was preceded in death by his parents Marvin and Rosemarie Beerman, sisters Sally Beerman and Brenda Postma, in laws, Virgil and June Peters and brother in law Scott Weber.

Dan died on October 14, 2021, at Murray County Medical Center in Slayton, MN at 74 years of age. 00 PM at Worthington Christian Church. Private family burial was held at Worthington Cemetery. A Celebration of Life service at the Worthington Christians church, with Pastor Mark Beerman officiating assisted by Pastor Doug White. Condolences may be sent to the family at: 10753 Knauf Ave, Iona, MN 56141.

Wilmont VFW post teamed up with the DAV (Disabled American Veterans) and have clothing drop-off boxes around the area—next to Wilmont Hardware, two by Ace Hardware in Worthington, one by Peterson Cleaning next to Graham Tire in Worthington and in Rushmore across from the bank.

Everyone's donations and help are greatly appreciated!

Donations help support our local VFW Post especially during the pandemic.
