Pfc. Lawrence N. Schwartz, 28, son of Mrs. J. P. Schneider of southern Larkin Township, became another on the lengthening list of Nobles County North African casualties on June 3, as learned by his mother Saturday in a message from the war department. The same day came a terse, but sympathy letter from the Rev. F. B. Gaffney, chaplain of a hospital at Souk Ahras in northeastern Algeria, south of Bone, stating the Pfc. Schwartz had been buried in the Catholic cemetery there. This was taken by the family to indicate that the Larkin soldier died in the hospital, presumably of disease. Exactly what happened will not be known until the written particulars are given. Pfc. Schwartz was last heard from by his relatives here three weeks ago, through a letter written May 12, at which time he seemed to have been in good health. It was exactly two years ago, June 9, since Pfc. Schwartz was inducted at Ft. Snelling. He had been in North Africa since December 23, 1942. Members of the family said Monday that the thoughtfulness of the Army chaplain at Souk Ahras, in writing Mrs. Schneider that her son had received Christian burial did much to soften the shock accompanying the death message. Besides his mother and step father, Pfc. Schwartz is survived by three sisters and one brother, Mrs. Ed Rowelling of Adrian and Lorraine and Anna Mae Schneider and Alfred Schwartz on the home place. He had one niece, Sharon Kay Roemeling at Adrian. The last time Pfc. Schwartz was home was in August, 1942, when he had a 10-day furlough.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Springman, Joe and Claire and Maynard Sieve autoed to Sioux Falls on Monday where they attended the graduation exercises of the Radio School of the Army Air Base. Their son, Norbert, was one of the class.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Scholtes Sr. entertained at dinner Sunday in honor of their son, Tech. Cpl. Cyril Scholtes of Kingsman, Arizona who came home on furlough. Those who attended were Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Scholtes and Sharon, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Scholtes and family, Mr. and Mrs. Fabian Scholtes and family, Mr. and Mrs. William Brake and Jim, Mr. and Mrs. John Palmer of Windom, and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Zawacki of Minneapolis.

A public telephone was installed some time ago, inside the doorway south of the Sievers Cream Station.

The annual meeting held at the school gym last Tuesday evening by the Wilmont Farmers Elevator Co., was attended by a large crowd. Election of officers took place, whereby N. D. Bertrand was re-elected President for three years; Paul Popkin and Henry Sieve were elected new members of the board, with Leo Hartman and Nick Schmidt resigning as members of the board. Art Wulf showed pictures of the Turkey Parade at Worthington from last fall, which was enjoyed by all. Lunch and refreshments were served after the meeting.

Don Schaw and his band will play for the dance at the Wilmont pavilion on Tuesday, June 29th. Be sure to hear this band.

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Einck are the parents of a son born June 19th at a Slayton hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. August Sieve are the parents of a daughter born June 18th at a Worthington hospital.

The Veterans of Foreign Wars and the Auxiliary held their regular meeting Monday evening at the school gym. After the business meeting, card playing took place with lunch following. Prize winners were: Mrs. Nick Kunz and Josephine Balster. The Wilmont Auxiliary was awarded a prize of $5 for heading the list in the membership drive the past year, ending April 1st.

Marie Kremer is convalescing at her home from an operation she underwent last week at a Worthington hospital.

Joe Balster, Russel Cowen, August Sievers, Herman Voss, Jr., and Joe Arens of Adrain returned home Thursday afternoon from the northern part of the state where they spent a few days fishing. They report fishing was the best for many years.

Those from OLGC who went to Worthington Saturday to receive their eighth grade diploma's were: Marion Bremer, Everly Hendel, Kathleen Hendel, Dale Hoffman, Theodore Jueneman, Alvin Kremer, Earl Lutmer, Marie Middendorf, Elizabeth Michels, Donald Olson, Francis Pacholl, Kathleen Probst, Marion Schissel, Lyle Schlichte, Mildred Schroer, Donna Sieve, Rita Slater, Elaine Springman, Leon Einck, Merrill Voss, Kathleen Balster, David Rogers, Donald Hoffman, James Becker, Janice Alberts and Dorothy Fuerstenberg (from St. Kilian).

Lismore

Aloys Diekmann, 38, is recovering at a Worthington hospital from injuries received Saturday morning while working in the field. A colt caused a runaway while Diekmann was making the last round before noon with a side delivery rake, and he was dragged a short distance before he was able to free himself. Although Diekmann's right leg was badly torn and the small bone shattered, he managed to walk to the home. He was suffering from shock when brought to a Worthington hospital, but according to the attending physician, is doing well.

Miss Mary Henning of Lismore, daughter of H. J. Henning, and Mr. Clayton Olberding of Minneapolis, son of Mrs. C. H. Olberding of Lismore, were married Saturday, June 19th at seven p.m. at the St. Mary's parsonage, Minneapolis, the Rev. Paul Judge officiating. Attending the couple were Mr. and Mrs. A. Carlson of Minneapolis. A dinner was given for members of the wedding party and guests at the Minnesota Terrace, Hotel Nicollet, by the bride's aunt, Miss Edith Sell. The groom is employed as assistant accountant at the Pako Corporation, Minneapolis.

Eighth graders from St. Anthony receiving diplomas in Worthington Saturday were Dan Kealey, Leroy Krogman, Donald Lacore, Mildred Lutmer, Dale Miller, LaVerne Olberding, Aloysius Tennesen, Mercedes Tennesen, & William VonHoltum

St. Kilian

Pfc Teddy Hartman left Tuesday from Worthington for Camp Forrest, Tenn., after enjoying a furlough at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fredo Hartman. Before he left his parents had a Sunday dinner in his honor. The guests were his boyhood friends, Ambrose and Norbert Schneider and Billy Diekmann, his grandmother, Mrs. Herman Hebbelman, Matt Weber, Mr. and Mrs. Don Jeffers and family, Mr. and Mrs. Alphonse Arens and family, Mrs. Thomas Cruik, and Emma Tietenberg.

St. Kilian got their batting eye on the ball Sunday at the St. Kilian ball park when they defeated the Westbrook nine by a score of 12 - 2, before a large crowd of baseball fans. Adrian Hebig, St. Kilian's ace hurler, was the star player and only allowed his opponents three scattered hits throughout the entire game. B. Diekmann, W. Loosbrock, W. Middendorf, and V. Shelquist each got two hits apiece. St. Kilian players were: B. Diekmann - 1st, W. Loosbrock - c, W. Middendorf - 3b, F. Obele - 2b, A. Hebig - p, G. Schneider - cf, V. Shelquist - ss, M. Fuerstenberg - rf, B. Loosbrock - lf.

A Corpus Christi celebration will be held at St. Kilian Sunday, June 27th with High Mass at 10 o'clock. A plate dinner will be served at noon. Menu: mashed potatoes, gravy, baked ham, dressing, buttered peas and carrots, spring salad, bread, pineapple cream dessert, & coffee. In the afternoon a league baseball game will be played between Hadley and St. Kilian. The St. Kilian band will play throughout the day.

Mrs. Ben Schroer, who was seriously ill with pneumonia several days following the birth of her son, is reported to be improving.

VFW Auxiliary Veterans Day Card Contest

This past Fall Wilmont Auxiliary Post 2603 invited teachers and students from area schools to participate in the State sponsored VFW Auxiliary Veterans Day Card contest. Students were asked to create patriotic Veterans Day cards to express appreciation and also to honor our veterans for their service. The only requirement was to have the words "Thank You Veteran" somewhere on the card.

Our Wilmont VFW Auxiliary Post 2603 winners were: K-1 Granger Collin from Fulda Elementary School, Grades 2-3 Vivian Rodenberg from Adrian Elementary School, and Willow Langseth from grades 4-5 from Worthington Middle School. These students also won at the District level and received a cash reward and prize from the District Auxiliary.

Thank you to all teachers for supporting this project to honor our Veterans. The other patriotic cards were given to Veterans at the Luverne's Veteran Home, Sioux Falls VA Hospital and given out at our local Veterans Day Service. They were much appreciated!

Preschool screening Adrian Elementary

FRIDAY, MARCH 11, 2022

The screening will consist of the following components:

- * Fine/gross motor skills
  - * Language development
    - * Concepts
    - * Height/weight
  - * Vision/Hearing Screening
- Review of child's health history and immunization records

This preschool screening is for children who have birthdates from July 1, 2018 - December 31, 2018

Minnesota law now mandates that children participate in a developmental screening before they enroll in Kindergarten in the fall. The purpose of this screening is to identify children who may have health and learning problems from becoming more serious, but it is not intended as a substitute for health care from your family physician, dentist or other provider.

If you are a resident of the district and your child's birthdate falls into these dates and do not receive a letter in the mail, please contact the school at 507.483.2225
