They hosted an event, "Runway to Remember" on Saturday, March 26th at the EverSpring Inn in Marshall.

Following social hour and Grief & Hope speaker, Kelly Grosklags, a fashion show was presented. Models for the runway were moms who are experiencing grief related to child loss. Melissa Einck of Wilmont was one of the models. Supporting Melissa were her mom, Kris; sisters Nina Rogers of Reading; and Lacy Osborne of Rochester; and friend Deb Lutmer. It was an evening to honor, hope, and heal.

City of Wilmont—A reminder from from the sheriff office—since the weather is getting nicer and more people are out and about to just make sure that your house, car, garage, etc is locked up and if you own any type of cameras to just verify they are in good working order.

Also for the ease of first responders or the sheriffs office to make sure that your house numbers are where they can be seen from the street (in an emergency we want them to be able to locate your house fast and easy).

Sgt. Francis L. Enright arrived home Tuesday morning from Fort Sill, Oklahoma to spend a 12-day furlough at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Enright.

Emil Johanning and Clarence Spartz of the Naval Air Station, Norfolk, Virginia, arrived here Saturday evening and will spend their furlough at their homes.

David Schissel received a letter from Pvt. Paul Schissel of North Africa stating that he was fine and that on July 5th, it was 135 degrees hot, the day the letter was written which is rather warm.

Sunday afternoon at about 4:30 it started to rain and it really did rain with the wind blowing, doing considerable damage to the grain in this section of the county. The grain was starting to ripen and with the wind and rain, it was flattened to the ground. Some of it will come back to normal, but the majority will be hard to cut. Northwest of Wilmont, there was considerable damage to the crops around St. Kilian, the hail did come and farmers reported losses from 20 percent to 100 percent. This is the second time hail struck that territory. Some farmers had already cut some grain before Sunday, south and east of town. By the end of this week all binders will be humming around the field.

Two men met on the street Monday afternoon and one thing led to another while talking. Wally Gotmer and Francis Arens got down to real business at last and Wally bet Francis $20 that he could not make four miles in 48 minutes. He could crawl, walk, or run, any way he wanted to do it. Mr. Arens took the opportunity up at once and the race was on. Mr. Arens started at the Meyer corner at the southwest part of town and went four miles south where the money was waiting for him. He started to run slowly (dog trot like), and never once did he walk on the full four miles and when he got to the end, the watch showed 31 minutes. If you think you can best it, just try it some time and the gang will be there to time you to the second.

A large group of ladies turned out to 'fold dressings' Wednesday evening at the public school room, completing our July quota of 2,500. The ladies helping were Mrs. J. Albersman, Mrs. H. Slater, Mrs. N. D. Bertrand, Mrs. E. Middendorf, Mrs. F. Johanning, Mrs. B. Young, Mrs. E. M. Noethe, Mrs. Geo. Probst, Elizabeth McCormick, Mrs. Joe Hebbelman, Mrs. L. Scholtes, M. Stuntebeck, Mrs. H. Stuntebeck, Mrs. R. Johanning, Mrs. W. Brake, Mrs. W. Michels, Mrs. George Hebig, Mrs. H. Fuerstenberg, Mrs. A. Hendel, Mrs. W. J. Sievers, Mrs. A. Pacholl, Mrs. A. Loosbrock, Mrs. J. Bruns, and Mrs. E. Loosbrock. Mrs. Geo. Moser, Chairman

On Monday evening, July 26, Tiny Little and his band will be here to entertain you at dancing. On Thursday evening, July 29th, Rhythm Club Orchestra will provide music for dancing. On Wednesday, August 11, Lloyd Hunter and his band will be here. Be sure to hear this colored band. On Wednesday evening, August 18, Jimmy Barnett and his band will be here. Be sure and hear all these outstanding bands at the Wilmont Pavillion.

Rodney and Bob Scholtes had their tonsils removed at the Clinic Hospital at Worthington Tuesday.

Jake Hendel returned to Van Nuys, Cal. Friday evening after visiting at the home of his brother, Mike Hendel, and other relatives. He was accompanied there by Matt Arens, Sr. who will visit for an indefinite time there and with relatives in Missouri before returning home.

Mr and Mrs. Ed Winters are the proud parents of a 9 & 1/2 pound baby girl born to them at their home Thursday, July 15th. Mother and the little Miss are getting along nicely, while Daddy is all smiles.

Dear Folks, Well, I guess there is no soap in coming home. Lt. Hannon has a copy of orders from Alameda Air Station stating that there are to be no leaves, only in emergency, so I won't be home. I can't go up for my second class rating till August 15. This being captain of the Fire Department is no soap. We have a crew of 6 men on duty 24 hours a day. I wish I could have my boys give the home town a demonstration of putting out oil and gasoline fires with water. We demonstrated for the San Francisco and Oakland Fire Departments on our way of putting them fires out with water and they could'd believe it. They taught Lt. Hannan and myself at Marie Island Fire School for the navy, all kinds of way of fighting fire on board ship as well as buildings. We have a new Seagrave fire truck, a crash truck for plane crash, and portable equipment of all kinds. I have been teaching the boys the art of handling CO2 extinguishers (carbon dioxide). It is the same as dry ice. It is a liquid put under high pressure and when you break the gold seal by a valve, snow comes out and it is a non conductor of electricity. Good for small fires. We had an alert last night from 1 a.m. tie 2, and we had an alert day before yesterday for 20 minutes. All the planes on this air field are cargo planes, big two-motor jobs. There are 2 squadrons, VR3 and VR4. They go all over the world from here. There is an Army Air Line and TWA line that go out of here also. We have land runways, hangars and barracks, churches, theaters and what not. The airport covers about a section and a half. The Army boys come over to our hangars to ride in our planes and we go over to the Army to ride in their planes. They have those P-39's. They look like geese when they re high in the sky. We have had a few crashes, not as bad as Alameda Airport. Have to close now. Yours, Norbert Bach

Dear Ed, Just a note to let you know I am still alive and that I have moved to another place. My address is California but I am not quite there yet. I am in a desert or at least it looks like a desert to me. We are about 100 miles southwest from Phoenix, Arizona. It gets about 110 to 120 degrees in the shade here and no shade. I don't think the desert in California could be much worse. I thought Texas was bad for heat and dust but that is heaven according to this. The worst trouble is water. A fellow can get it all right but it's so warm you can't hardly drink it. There are no towns around here that I know of outside of Phoenix and no transportation to get there. They told us after we would get our camp built up, they would give us passes into Phoenix. So maybe a fellow will live through it all right. Well, will close and hope this letter finds you in the best of health. I remain, Harold Koehne

Pvt. Leander Hoffer, former Lismore boy and brother of J. L. and Ray Hoffer, was killed May 20 in the Attn Offensive, a message from Santa Ana, Calif. said. Word from the War Department was received by the parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jake Hoffer, former Lismore residents in the California town. This is the first Attn casualty report to Nobles County so far made public.

Several losses, ranging as high as 50% on flax, corn and other small grain, were suffered Thursday night of last week. The greatest loss was reported northeast of here in the territory north of Frank Peterburs and east of Lew Obele and Henry Roelofs.

St. Kilian

Forty-three loads of hay, about 75 bushels of oats, and some miscellaneous items of tools and equipment were lost in the burning of the Henry Burkard barn, northwest of St. Kilian Saturday afternoon. The blaze was discovered by the owner as he came in from the cornfield about 6 p.m., when a flaming shingle fell at his feet as he neared the barn. Calling upon his son, William, and Charles Aiken, a hired man, to get the livestock out, Burkard joined in with the result that none of the cows or horses were lost. The building was down in less than fifteen minutes. Aiken and young Burkard were milking on the main floor and knew nothing of the fire until Henry Burkard gave the alarm. Spontaneous combustion in green hay was blamed.

The St. Kilian ball team motored to Westbrook Sunday and were defeated by a score of 1 to 0. It was a real game until the rain stopped it in the first half of the ninth. Adrian Hebig, on the mound for the Saints, allowed only five hits and struck out seven in eight innings. Westbrook scored their one run in the sixth inning on two hits. In the first half of the ninth inning the Saints attempted to tie the score, when Middendorf, first up, was out pitcher to first, H. Fritz was out third to first, A. Hebig walked and Shelquist tripled, scoring Hebig, when the rain drove the players off the field and ended the ball game in favor of Westbrook with the score going back to the eighth inning which was 1 to 0. On July 25th there will be a double-header at St. Kilian ball park against Hadley. Let's all go to St. Kilian Sunday and help the boys take both games from the buttermilk boys.

A meeting of the Wilmont Go-Getters 4-H Club was held at the John Cuddigan home following the annual tour and picnic Wednesday. Walter Sieve gave the demonstration on spraying cabbage. Norman Sieve showed how to pick beans. Marilyn Sieve demonstrated how to make a doll. Margaret Cuddigan had a chicken feeding demonstration and Teresa Hartman showed how to clean and polish silverware. Norman Sieve had charge of the program and Margaret Cuddigan had charge of the games.

MARGARET MARY PICK, age 72, of Luverne, died Monday, April 4, 2022, at the Banner Heart Hospital in Mesa, AZ. Margaret was the twelfth child born on December 7, 1949, to Alma (Wieneke) and Floyd Madison. She grew up on the family farm and graduated from St. Adrian Catholic High School in 1967. She took a financial secretary course at Pipestone Area Vo-Tech.

Margaret married Gerald R. Pick on June 28, 1969, at St. Adrian Catholic Church in Adrian. She worked for A R Wood Manufacturing, where she was encouraged to give blood and did so until she surpassed nine gallons over the years. She later started a home day care business for 35 years.
