USDA Rural Development has funding available for very low- and low-income individuals and families seeking to purchase or repair a home in a rural area.

The Direct Home Loan program offers financing to qualified very-low and low-income applicants that are unable to qualify for traditional financing. No down payment is required, and the interest rate could be as low as one percent with a subsidy. Applicants must meet income and credit guidelines and demonstrate repayment ability. The program is available in rural communities of generally 35,000 people or less.

The maximum loan amount is $40,000 at a one percent interest rate, repayable for a 20-year term and can be used to improve or modernize homes and do essential repairs. Grants of up to $10,000 are available to homeowners 62 and older and must be used to remove health or safety hazards, such as fixing a leaking roof, installing indoor plumbing, or replacing a furnace.

Time is limited to receive funds for the current fiscal year. Contact a USDA Rural Development Housing Specialist in your area today, to see if you qualify.

MaDonna Odelia (Hermeling) Kremer, Donna to her family and friends, was born on August 25, 1922 in Iona, Minnesota. She passed away at Maple Lawn Nursing Home in Fulda, MN on April 29, 2022, at the age of 99. Donna, the fourth of twelve children of William and Odelia (Miller) Hermeling, grew up on the family farm and attended St. Columba school until her Junior year. She boarded in Fulda with the Penrod family during her last two years, graduating in 1940. After high school, Donna worked in Fulda at Josephine Appel's maternity home. In 1943, she moved to Kansas City, worked in a maternity hospital there, and lived with her older sister Alice and her family. Donna met the love of her life, Ray Kremer, after a dance in Slayton in 1940. She'd gone to the dance with her older brother Joe and his date. Ray was hitchhiking to his home in Wilmont, returning from his job as a truck driver with the Civilian Conservation Corp near New Ulm, MN. They picked Ray up, and the rest, as they say, is history. Donna worked various jobs around southwest Minnesota after Ray entered the Army-Air Force in August 1942. They were married on January 24, 1944 at St Columba Church in Iona, MN. She accompanied Ray to Langley Field, Virginia and worked in an office on the base until Ray was discharged in February 1946. They then moved to Sioux City, Iowa, where Ray attended barber college. Returning to Wilmont, Ray's hometown, the Kremers remained there until Ray purchased a barber shop in Fulda in 1953. By this time, there were four young children in the family, so Donna's work was in the home. Three more children were added to the family, and once they were old enough to be at home alone after school for a few hours, Donna began her 15-year nurse aid career at Maple Lawn Nursing home in Fulda, and retired in 1987. Ray suddenly passed away in January 1990. Prior to his passing, and after their children were grown, Ray and Donna enjoyed golfing, Canadian fishing trips, and other travels. Donna moved to the assisted living facility Maplewood Court in Fulda in July of 2012. Donna was an avid Twins fan, and during her time at Maplewood Court assembled countless jigsaw puzzles, and completed multiple search-a-word puzzles every day. She played a very competitive game of Scrabble, frequently winning, and always declared, "somebody has to win and somebody has to lose." Donna attended St Gabriel's Catholic church in Fulda since 1953. She belonged to St Gabriel's Ladies Aid, the rosary club, a quilting group, both VFW and Legion Auxiliaries, and the Pink Ladies. Donna very much enjoyed spending time with her family. She especially enjoyed attending sporting and other school events in which her grandchildren and great-grandchildren participated.

In addition to her parents and husband, Donna was preceded in death by four infant children, Cathy, Donald, Barbara and Charlotte; her granddaughter Jodi (Kremer) Drake; her son-in-law Rich Clauson; her sisters and brothers-in-law, Alice and Leo Fehring, Lola and Jack Voss, Fidelis and Ray Hoffman, Betty and Harold Haar, Ivona and Tom Risacher, Arthur Slater, May and Arthur Johnson, Mary and Don Olson; her brothers Jerome and Joseph; her sisters-in-law Audry and Betty Hermeling; Ray's sisters and brothers-in-law Esther and Isadore Einck, Lorraine and Art Remakel; Ray's brother Alvin Kremer; and several nieces and nephews.

Continued....

She is survived by her children and their spouses: Randy & Kim Kremer of Fulda, MN, Linda Clauson of Fulda, MN, Tom Kremer of Arvada, Colorado, Pat & JoAnn Kremer of Isle, MN, Wanda & David Hoyt of Walnut Grove, MN, Jim & CJ Kremer of Worthington, MN, and Tim & Tami Kremer of Willmar, MN; her 14 grandchildren Mathew, Amanda, and Annette Kremer; Jeffrey (Trena) Clauson, Terri (Clauson) (Erin) Elder, Mark (Kacie) Clauson, Dawn Clauson; Joe (Sheila) Kremer; Nicole, Allison (Kremer) (Ross) Johnson, and Alex (Kayla) Kremer; Timberly, Adam, and Lucas Kremer; her 13 great-grandchildren Kierstin (Zachary) Mergens, Jamie Streff, Evan Clauson; Marissa, Dawson, and Gavan Kremer; Kaden, Reegan, and Greyson Elder; Kade Serbus, Kali and Kiah Clauson; Talan Kremer; and her great-great-grandchildren Brinley and Breckyn Mergens, and Ashton Streff. She is also survived by her brothers and sisters-in-law: Bill (Shirley) Hermeling of Minnetonka, MN, Larry Hermeling of Fulda, MN and Jeannette Kremer of Omaha, NE.

Funeral Services were held at St. Gabriel's Catholic Church Fulda, Interment at St. Gabriel's Cemetery Fulda, MN.

Pvt. Louis Spartz Wounded in N. A. - The following July 25, 1943 letter was received by Mrs. Peter Gerber at Worthington from her brother, Pvt. Louis Spartz, who is in the General Hospital, North Africa. Dear Eleanor and family, I really don't know how to begin. I don't know whether to tell you a bunch of fibs or the truth. But the time for worry is over now and I am feeling pretty fair, so I guess it may as well be the truth. This is my 29th day in this hospital bed and guess I have a couple more weeks before I can start getting up. I was shot thru the stomach on June 25th, and I'll have to give all my thanks to the English Armys' efficient doctors and nurses for saving my life. It entered near the center of my back and came out about an inch above my right hip. God, I thought I'd had trouble and pain before, but I found out I didn't know what pain really was, and was a person can go through. My Guardian Angel must have really stood right over me the first three weeks for I'll never know how I battled it through. I still have pain yet, but it is bearable now. The Catholic chaplin comes to see me every day. We're good friends. I received the last Sacraments but I didn't know anything about it until he told me a few days later, so I guess I was all set for the take off. What made it so serious, it damaged my liver quite a bit. The doctors and nurses have been so good to me. I couldn't get better treatment at home. I'm writing this to you and you'll have to be my messenger. It's so hard for me to write. My Pals come to see me every day and bring me everything I want. Tell Mother not to worry, because I am not, and everything is turning out O.K. Well, so long. Love to all, Louis (P.S. Louis is now convalescing and off my "bad" books. Eating like a horse. Fr. T. Cleary, Chaplin)

Sgt. Billy Schissel arrived home on furlough from Louisiana Thursday for a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Schissel.

Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon, August 1st, at 2 o'clock at the Presbyterian Church for Charles Allen Smith, who passed away Thursday, July 29th. Rev. James Young was in charge. Pallbearers were Wm. Sievers, Wm. Michel, G. A. Shelquist, Ben Farris, Milford Davis, and Harry Clarke. Charles Allen Smith, son of John W. and Catherine Smith, came to Minnesota in 1900 and had lived near Adrian and Lismore before coming to the Wilmont vicinity in 1910. Since then he has lived on a farm near Wilmont which is operated by his father, John Smith, his brothers, Claude and Walter, and his sister, Grace. He is survived by his father; five brothers, Claude and Walter of Wilmont, Ned of Slayton; Harry of Rochester and Alva of Aberdeen, S. Dak., and two sisters, Mrs. Otto Joens and Grace of Wilmont. Burial was made in the Adrian Cemetery. Heartfelt sympathy is extended to the relatives in their bereavement.

Mrs. John Voss moved her household goods into the upstairs rooms of the Matt Ward residence last Saturday. We welcome Mrs. Voss to our city.

Mrs. Rosella Huschka helped with household duties in the Alphonse Arens home last week.

Lloyd Hunter and his celebrated colored band will be at the pavilion next Wednesday evening, August 11th. Be sure and hear them.

Joe Clendenning was taken to the Clinic Hospital in Worthington last Wednesday where he underwent an operation. Joe states he feels better but is pretty weak.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Spartz and children and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Spartz moved to Minneapolis where the men will be employed.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Majeres are the parents of a baby girl born Sunday, August 1st. She was named Norma Jean.

There will be no preaching service at the Presbyterian church until August 29th. Sunday school will be held as usual.

Credits earned by the students of Our Lady of Good Counsel High School for the school year 1942-1943 will be given out after each Mass, Sunday, August 15th. There will be registration for the High School students for the coming school year after both Masses, Sunday, August 23rd.

Mr. and Mrs. August Schettler are the proud parents of a baby boy born on Friday.

Miss Elvira Hoffman is assisting with household duties in the Clarence Majeres home.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lenz received a letter from their son, Cpl. Albert Lenz last week stating that he had broken his ankle a week ago while getting ready to move to a different camp. As far as known, Cpl. Lenz slipped while loading. He is at the hospital at Cam Hood, Texas and will be there for about six weeks.

Several threshing rigs were going to it last week and this week all farmers are in full swing. Oats is running all the way from 30 to 50 bushels per acre. Some flax has been combined already and from reports it is going around 15 bushel per acre. Farm help is real scarce right now during the threshing period. Several businessmen and women were out shocking after working hours which helped considerably to farmers.

Mr. and Mrs. John Lebens received a letter stating their son, Lieutenant Richard J. Lebens will graduate from Harvard University August 28th and then will be sent to the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

Through the courtesy of the First National Bank and the post office, Arnetha Fuerstenberg and Anna Mae Bremer collected $319 in Bonds and Stamps on "Molly Pitcher" Day, August 7th at Wilmont. Mrs. John Pacholl, Chm.

Lismore

Cpl. Bernard Koehne left Tuesday for Camp White, Oregon after spending a furlough visiting his mother, Mrs. Wm. Koehne and family.

Pfc. Leo Hensen has joined the Paratroopers and is at Fort Benning, Georgia doing intensive parachute training.

Lois Trautt and Marion Miller of Worthington, Pvt. Marvin Loosbrock of Fort Snelling, Cliff Pieper, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hebig and family were Sunday dinner guests in the Mrs. L. A. Loosbrock home.

Sgt. Billie Schissel left Friday evening for Leeville, La., after spending a furlough visiting with home folks.

Pfc. Julius 'Bud' Waller arrived here Saturday from Shreveport, Louisiana to spend a 15-day furlough visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Waller.

Sylvester Recker of the U.S.N. who is stationed at Farragut, Idaho arrived here Friday and spent until Tuesday visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Recker & family.

Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Appel are the parents of a son born Sunday, July 25th, at the Adrian Hospital.

Elmer Altman was operated on for appendicitis Saturday at the Adrian hospital.

Doris Pieper, who is in training at the General Hospital in Worthington, spend Sunday visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Pieper.

St. Kilian

Pfc. Leo Diekmann left Tuesday for Los Angeles, Cal., after spending a week's furlough visiting his mother, Mrs. Mary Diekmann and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bruns received a letter from their son, Cpl. Vincent, stating that he passed all the exams and the board and was accepted for Aviation Cadet and hopes to get called within the next month. Cpl. Bruns is stationed at the Air Base at Carlsbad, New Mexico.

The St. Kilian ball team motored to Hadley Sunday and was defeated by the buttermilk boys by a very close score of 7 to 6 in ten innings. This was the first game of three-game series and on Sunday, August 8th, the buttermilk boys will be at the St. Kilian ball park where a good game will take place between these two teams. The Saints started to score in the first inning, when two runs crossed home plate. They scored single runs in the sixth, seventh, eighth, and ninth innings for a total of 6 runs, with one being a home run by Adrian Hebig, St. Kilian pitcher. Hadley scored the winning run in the tenth inning to win the game. Adrian Hebig, on the mound for the Saints, allowed nine hits and struck out nine batters in ten innings.

St. Kilian was defeated in the second game of the series by Hadley at the St. Kilian ball park by a score of 17 to 3. Adrian Hebig and Joe Probst were the pitchers and allowed 20 hits, and the team had eight errors chalked against them. The feature of the game was the home runs by the Hadley battery which were hit into the tall weeds along right and center field and could not be found until too late for any play at the plate. Hitting honors for St. Kilian were Shelquist with two doubles and Middendorf with two singles.

Joe Bruns was taken to the Clinic Hospital at Worthington the first of the week for treatment.

Donna Dammer, 71, of Rushmore, MN passed away on Saturday, April 23, 2022.

Donna Mae Croat was born on July 26, 1950 to Wilfred and Ina (Fox) Croat. She was a graduate of Hills-Beaver Creek, Class of 1968.

Donna married Daryl Dammer on April 17, 1971. The couple resided in Rushmore, MN for 23 years until they were divorced and she moved to Worthington, MN. Donna and Daryl have three daughters: Lynette and Jeff Werner of Wilmont, MN, Tammy and Kevin Stude of Sioux Falls, SD and Amy Dammer of Rushmore, MN.

Donna enjoyed reading, camping, thrifting, shopping QVC/HSN, chocolate cake and spending time with family and friends. Over the years, Donna worked at several places around Worthington such as: Prairie Market, Dairy Queen, United Building Center (UBC), American Legion and Lampert's Lumber. She always enjoyed seeing her regular shoppers/contractors that came in each day, but would complain when they compared their prices to Menards. Later, Donna tried her hand in owning her own thrift store. She had a location, DALTS Consignment in Luverne, MN and later Lakefield, MN. Donna always enjoyed finding great deals and passing on treasures to others.

Donna's grandchildren became the center of her life. There wasn't anything she wouldn't do for them. Although Donna faced lots of challenges in her life, family was always something that rooted her.

Donna was preceded in death by three children, Steven, Stacie and Thomas; her parents; two brothers, Duane and Jean and a sister, Beverly.

Donna is survived by her three daughters; her grandchildren, Taylor & Austin Oldham, Tori & Kyle Perry, Noah Stude, Antonio Dammer & Kiley Dammer, Amber Ward & Jacob Sano, Ali-sha & Brett Drexler and Cody Werner; her great grandchildren, Ryleigh, Brayden, Karson, Easton, Braelynn, Alayna, Caleb and Piper and her brother, Allen Croat.

Private family burial will be held in the Sunset Rest Cemetery near Rushmore, MN.

Benson Funeral Home in Worthington is in charge of the arrangements.

With the start of the baseball season, the pictures this week are taken at the Wilmont and St. Kilian ball diamonds. Wilmont had painted signs on a board fence around the outfield. The first photo is one of the fence in centerfield with 'Welcome to Wilmont'. Sitting in front of the sign are Florence Balster and Georgene Moser. This was taken in the early 1950's. The second photo was taken in St. Kilian from behind the home plate backstop, looking to the east. Take note of the older cars lined up along the third base line and the dress suits the men were wearing. You don't see that anymore. Sitting the center, facing the camera, is Fabe Scholtes.
