Congratulations to Mike & Melissa Einck of rural Wilmont on the birth of their son, Marek Michael, who arrived on Thursday, August 25th. Marek joins older sisters Mari and Mabrey at home and has a guardian angel sister, Molly. Grandparents are Jim and Kris Weidert of Lismore and Ron and Janelle Einck of Iona. Great grandparents are Jerome and Mary Weidert of Lismore and Bess Lingen of Tyler.

Congratulations to Adam and Nicole Lutmer of Omaha, NE on the birth of their first child, Sophia Ann born on Tuesday, August 9th. Proud first-time grandparents are Rick and Linda Lutmer; great-grandparents are the late Jim and Germaine Roemeling and Melvin and Darleen Lutmer, all formerly of Lismore. Little Sophie had a tough first week spent in the ICU, but this little Lutmer was a fighter and has since gone home. Welcome to your large Lutmer family Sophia!

Jackie Wieneke of Lismore was recently treated to "Mystery Trip" by her daughter Angie Beek. Dyersville IA was their first stop to see The Field of Dreams and the beautiful Basilica of St. Francis Xavier. After a stop in Davenport, they were off to Chicago for a whirlwind stay on the Magnificent Mile, including the Chicago River cruise, Lake Michigan cruise, Sears Tower, the Bean, and Jackie reports that they "ate their way" thru parts of the Windy City. Family making this a fun trip were Angie, Jason, and Jonathan Beek, Kim & Tim Meltzer, Joshua Wieneke and Addie Cox. What a great surprise and fun time with family!

"Team Phoebe" participated in the annual Heart Walk in Sioux Falls, SD on Saturday, August 21. Phoebe was surprised and honored to be recognized among a short list of participants at the event for donations raised. Phoebe collected over $1000 in donations for the American Heart Association! As you recall, Phoebe Vargas was born with a congenital heart defect in November 2009. She endured three open-heart surgeries, the first one when she was only 7 days old! Phoebe has taught her family to count their blessings and live each moment to the fullest. Today Phoebe is twelve years old and a 7th grader at Dell Rapids St. Mary Catholic School. She is the daughter of Ivan and Jean Vargas of Dell Rapids, SD and the granddaughter of Ruth and the late Marvin Lorang of Lismore. Keep living your best life, Phoebe!

Lisa Diekmann and her father, Junior Czepa of Fulda, were on the recent Midwest Honor Flight. Eighty-five veterans (each with a guardian) plus twenty medical and ground crew flew out of Sioux Falls, SD at 5:30am on August 27th for our Nation's Capitol. The veterans went to Arlington National Cemetery where they witnessed the changing of the guards. They visited the Air Force Memorial, the Navy Memorial, WWII Memorial, Korean War Memorial, Vietnam Memorial, and the Iwo Jima Memorial before boarding the plane and flying back to Sioux Falls. There was a banquet the night before in Sioux Falls and also a welcome home at the arena upon their return. Junior and Lisa had 23 of their family and friends there to greet them! Lisa and her dad felt it was a very moving and emotional day for them and they were treated so well. They strongly encourage you to sign up your father, mother, uncle, aunt, brother or sister who have served in the military, for this a "once in a lifetime" trip to see the war memorials. Thanks to Junior and all veterans for your service!

Langley Field, Virginia - November 11, 1943 Dear Pete, Well, I guess it is about time that I'm writing you a letter and thanking you and the Veterans for the paper. I've been receiving it every week and it makes a fellow feel pretty good to read about what is happening at the old home town. Things around here are about the same as usual, outside of some flying, a fellow doesn't have too much to do. The weather has turned somewhat. It is cooler than usual, but I don't imagine it is anything like that at home. I suppose Dick and the "old boys" are huddled around the card table keeping occupied at the game of rummy. Well, Pete, the noon whistle just blew so will sign off. Once again I thank you for the paper. As ever, Ray (Kremer)

Sgt. Norbert Springman graduated from the Gunnery school November 2 at Fort Myers, Florida and has received his gunner wings.

Pvt. Louis Spartz arrived here Thursday from Memphis, Tennessee where he has been confined to a hospital for some time recuperating from wounds he received in battle while across. Louis has to report back in a month.

Pvt. Clarence Reker returned home Friday from a Wisconsin hospital where he has been confined for some time. Clarence received an honorable discharge from the Army. Being in the Army for nearly four years, a great deal of the time was spent in Newfoundland.

On Saturday and Sunday, November 20 and 21, there will be a raffle at the Reilly's Cafe here in Wilmont. Turkeys, ducks and geese will be raffled. Mrs. Reilly informed the writer that she has secured some fine birds for this raffle. When in town on Saturday or Sunday, come in and try your luck winning one or more of these fine birds. Remember the date, Saturday and Sunday, this week.

Mrs. Gusho of Worthington, accompanied by Rita Middendorf and Yvonne Gerber, left Monday for San Francisco, Cal. where the girls will seek employment. They will also visit with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Driessen moved into the rooms above the Boecher's Store Monday of this week and are now nicely settled.

Lawrence Balk Sr. will hold his public sale on Thursday, November 18th at the farm, two and one-half miles south of Wilmont.

Julius Middendorf and Milo Hurlbut went to St. Paul Thursday where they will be employed.

Mrs. Herb Spartz is receiving medical attention at the Home Hospital at Slayton since last Friday.

Mrs. Henry Stuntebeck is confined to her bed due to illness.

Carl Francis Galagan, 21, ships cook third class, USNR, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Galagan was reported missing at sea, in a message from Rear Admiral Randall, chief of naval personnel, Washington, D.C. Although Galagan entered the Navy a year ago next December 22, he had only recently gone to sea. After his boot training at Farragut he went to special school at San Pedro, Cal. Apparently he shipped aboard a new naval craft, for he wrote his mother, when last heard from, that he had just inspected his new berth at Tacoma, Wash., and was very happy over having everything completely new to work with. Aside from letters, the Galagans only heard from their son after his departure when he called them by telephone. The parents recently retired from farming and moved to Worthington from their former home at Lismore. Another brother, Cyril, is also in the Navy and still another, William, is in the Army. A fourth son, Mrs. Galagan said today, is just about to be called into the armed forces.

Pfc. Albert Voss, who has been spending a furlough here visiting his parents and other relatives, left Thursday for Camp Carson, Colorado.

Cpl. Raymond Henning of Camp White, Oregon arrived here Sunday to spend a furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Barney Henning, and other relatives.

Pvt. Earl Loebig of Camp Barkeley, Texas arrived here Monday to spend a furlough with his mother, Mrs. M. R. Loebig, and other relatives and friends.

St. Anthony's Parish of Lismore will hold their annual church bazaar and supper on Sunday, November 21st in the church basement. Serving to start at 5 o'clock. Bingo and other amusements will follow. Plan to come and enjoy the evening. Following is the menu: Mashed potatoes, gravy, chicken, cold meat, buttered peas & carrots, cabbage salad, cranberries, pickles, bread, apple pie, & coffee. Price 50 cents and 35 cents.

From the Paduan (school paper)

Elections were held in the two high school class rooms to begin the popularity contest which is to culminate at the St. Anthony Church Bazaar on November 21. The Freshmen-Sophomore boys chose Donald Lacore as their candidate and the girls chose Lois VonHoltum. As their opponents the Senior-Junior boys chose Loren Peterburs and the girls choice fell on Midred Hebig. The contest is to serve a double purpose - to bring the most popular of each group out in the limelight and to give each one a chance to do their part in the coming Church event. The contestants and their friends are gathering votes at one cent each. The ones who bring in the most votes will be crowned on Sunday evening.

The following letter was received by the principal during the past week. Dear Sister M. Baptist, The fifth and sixth grade boys and girls are thanking you for all you are doing for us. The things for which we thank you are so many, we can only begin to mention a few. We thank you for the football, letting us sing in the choir, leading the rosary in Church, and the many little messages you bring. We will try to say "Thank You" by praying for you. Sincerely yours, Fifth and Grades by Edwin Wittry

St. Kilian

Pfc. Richard Paul Hartman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fredo Hartman, has graduated from the Armament School at Lowrey Field, Colorado. Pfc. Hartman received his basic training at the Lincoln Air Base plus nine days advanced basic training.

The St. Kilian Catholic Church was the scene of a pretty wedding on Thursday morning, November 11th, at nine o'clock when Miss Beatrice Fath, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jake Fath, became the wife of Pfc. Arnold Hoffman, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Hoffman, of Fort Leonard Wood, Missouri. The ceremony was solemnized by Rev. Henry Tennesen. The wedding march was played by Mrs. George Hebig and assisted by the church choir. The bride wore a gown of white slipper satin with a train and lace inserts. Her fingertip veil was held in place with a tiara of white seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of roses and baby chrysanthemums. As her attendant, she chose her sister, Rosemary Fath whose gown was of peach taffeta, floor length. She carried a bouquet of carnations. The groom's attendant was his brother, Quentin Hoffman. The wedding dinner was served at noon by the bride's parents at the home of the groom to 90 relatives and friends. Congratulations are extended to the young couple by a large circle of friends here.

The twin sons of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Knotz were named Rodney & Roland. Sponsors were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Knotz, Colleen Mae and Junior Koontz of Lismore.

Tidbit

If your horse dies, the loss may be felt more severely by our enemies, according to a farm bulletin issued by the U. of Kentucky. In reducing the value of dead animals to terms of waste fat for glycerine, farmers were told a dead horse would supply enough fat to make glycerine for 75 anti-aircraft shells; a dead sheep, 15 shells, a 100-pound pig, 50 shells; a cow, 80 shells; a calf, 5 shells. Thus, a dead animal can be utilized for vital war purposes when it is turned over to a redesign company to be converted in fat glycerine. "Edgerton Rendering Works"

Talked with Carol Balster about photo with the 5 nuns in the last issue of the Wilmont Shopper, and she thought the nun, third from the right, was Sister M. Louise who was principal from 1939 - 1945.

The photo this week is from the 1949 "50 Year" celebration of Wilmont. The riders on this float are the 1949 Queen of Wilmont, Kathleen Balster, and her court. Luella Voss, one of the participants, helped identify those in the court. From L-R are Luella Voss, Esther Probst, Kathleen Hendel, Elvira Heinrichs, Marie Middendorf, & LaVonne Heinrichs. A Queen contest ran from Wednesday to Saturday, the week before the event. The rules stated the young ladies had to be between the ages of 16 and 21.

Voters could pick their candidate and write her name on a sheet of paper, accompanied with ten cents and place it in an envelope and seal it. Almost every business had a place you could put your envelope with a dime in it. The Queen who was elected would reign over the two-day celebration. The contest closed on Saturday night at 11 o'clock. One detail Luella mentioned was that a person could vote more than once, and some people voted many times. After the 910 votes, cast for 19 different young ladies, were counted, Kathleen Balster received the most votes and elected as Queen of Wilmont. The next top six vote-getters were her attendants.

A traumatic experience Mary Lou recalls from her grade school days in Wilmont was receiving a “C” in physical education. Sitting at a table talking to me, she had a stricken look on her face as she told the tale. “I had no idea what a “C” meant, I had never gotten one and I cried.” She clearly remembers her report card was on a sheet of aqua paper. It must have made quite an impression! Her parents couldn’t figure why she had a “C” and to this day that “C” is a big question mark in her life. “I would like to know why I received it!” she laughed.

Remember when she said Dr. Valentine offered her tuition money for college? Mary Lou was and is a very bright woman, self-educated. She recalled Father Sullivan, the priest when she was in high school during a marriage class the students were required to take. “I remember him saying the females should have enough clothes to last awhile! I don’t recall him ever telling the boys what they should prepare for!”

“I met Bill (William Mulligan) in the summer of 1961. He had spent two years at Marquette University, a Jesuit school in Milwaukee. Bill worked on the new interstate highway system in the Sioux Falls area to secure the money to return to college. We married at Heron Lakes beautiful Sacred Heart Church on June 20, 1964.”

Mary Lou would continue to work for Northwestern Bell, where she first worked after high school graduation. They would transfer her to Olivia, then to Windom. “When we married they let me transfer to Minneapolis,” she explained. She would work full time until 1967 when daughter Karen was born.

“Patrick had arrived in Oct. of 1965. I continued to work part time for several years and finally quit after my fifth child arrived. By that time Bill worked for INA Insurance Company and they transferred us and our seven children to Atlanta, Birmingham, Tampa, Syracuse and finally Boston. Bill retired in 2000 and we moved back to Luverne”.

Mary Lou recalls receiving an invite to a high school class reunion; she had graduated in 1959 from Our Lady of Good Counsel. By this time she and her husband and five of their soon to be six children and were living in Minneapolis where Bill would finish school. “It was a 17 year reunion!” she laughed. Seventeen years! And, she received a message, “Bring your glove!”

“I thought, my glove? I won’t be able to make it around any bases. The baby was only six weeks old!” She laughs with delight, a spontaneous burst of joy that seems to be a part of this woman. She brought her glove though, and her family. “The kids thought I was a hero! I don’t think I could even bend over!” What Mom doesn’t want to be a hero in the eyes of her children? The Mulligan children are Patrick, Karen, Maureen, Ellen, Sheila, Laura and Colleen.

They are now scattered around the country and I would image they still consider their Mom a hero.
