 605 7th Street *****

In 1976, we moved into "the Old Cowan Place" -the big stucco house on the east edge of Wilmont. It was purchased in October 1975 from Rowdy & Joan Cowan Kontz.

When we moved in and for a year or two after, it seemed that every car that drove by honked their horn in greeting! We used to run to the nearest door or window to see who it was. Of course, that friendly gesture died out as we lived there for 47 years, longer I believe than any of the previous owners or tenants.

In the spirit of small-town friendliness, welcome the Adam and Brittany Wood family to that big stucco house on the east edge of Wilmont. Honk as you drive-by! I'm sure a few of you will remember it as "the Old Cowan Place", but most will remember it as "The Old Balster Place". May the Wood Family enjoy that place for many decades and locals will refer to it, rightfully, as "The Wood Place".

Buffalo Ridge Leathernecks Marine Corps Detachment will celebrate the 247th anniversary of the US Marine Corps during the Marine Corp Ball on November 12th at the Brewster Legion. The celebration will begin with a 5 pm social and 6 pm ceremony and meal.

The dinner will feature a choice of smoked prime rib, smoked pork loin or chicken and entertainment by Rodger Peterson and Dwight York at the RoJo Comedy Club. Raffle tickets are available for purchase during the event with 20 one of a kind firearms to be raffled as well as a hand forged knife made by Dr. Jerry Johnson of Worthington.

All are welcome to attend—need not be a veteran to attend. Tickets are available for purchase by contacting Commandant Gary Stewart at 507-360-3171 or by stopping at Pawn-It in Worthington. For those who wish to attend the comedy portion only, doors will open at 8 pm with a cover charge for admittance.

Thanks to Casey Hector for her Halloween map for Wilmont again this year. So many trick or treaters were able to enjoy the gorgeous weather and get out to the houses handing out the goodies!

Wilmont

H. M. Lynch of Adrian, sign painter, put up an honor roll board in Wilmont last week, which is a very neat job. There are 129 names on this board of men in services. Some names of men and women were missed at the time this board was made and will be put on later. If any names were missed, kindly leave the name of your boy or girl at the Tribune Office and it will be put on with the rest of the names. There will also be a light installed at the top of the board which will burn all night and will work with a time clock, as soon as it can be arranged. The Village Council

Letter to Tribune editor - Dear Pete, Just a few lines to let you know that I am still receiving the Wilmont paper and enjoy reading it a lot. I also wish to inform you that my address has changed. My new address is just box 424, Bremerton, Washington. Some time ago I was transferred, and I am now working in the Fort Worden wholesale and retail post exchange store here in Bremerton, sure doesn't seem like the Army anymore. I also sell ferry tickets on Sunday's in the USO to military personnel only. A few weeks ago I met an old friend of mine from Wilmont, 'Butch Voss'. There are also a few more people from Wilmont out here including Leon Hedrick and John Rabenberg. Get to see them quite often. Well, Pete, will sign off and give my best regards to all the people on the home front. Also wish to thank the Veteran's of Foreign Wars for their part in contributing the paper. As ever a farmer at heart, Mike Hartman

The photo from the past is of the Wilmont WW II Veteran's Board that was mentioned in the Years Ago column. It stood on the east side of main street between Broich Real Estate Agency and Huisenga's Grocery. This photo includes 130 names. I have a couple of other photos of people pointing to names on the bottom of the board when it was still up, so I was able to add the rest of the names that were not included in this photo. I am also adding what is close to the final list of names that were on this board. The  denotes the men gave their life for their country in WW II. If anyone would know the last names of the men at the bottom of the third column, or names that are not on this list, or would have any photos of this board, contact me at 507-360-1136 of aubrake@gmail.com

Lynn "Papa" Behr, the youngest son of Fred and Martha (Gehl) Behr, was born on November 11, 1930 in Heron Lake, MN. He grew up on the farm and attended school until the 8th grade in Fulda. Lynn was drafted into the U.S. Army in March of 1952 and went to basic training at Ft. Leavenworth, Kansas and then to Engineer School in Columbus, NE. He spent the rest of his service based at Ft. Belvoir Va. On October 4, 1953, Lynn married his soul mate, his long-time business partner, and more than anything, the true love of his life, Alta Redenius. Following his discharge from the Army in March of 1954, they made their home on the family farm in Belfast Township just east of Fulda. It is the farm Lynn would remain on his entire life. He began farming with his brother, Vernon, then his son Marlowe and most recently his son-in-law, Dave and 3 of his grandsons. Lynn would often tell people "If you're done farming before Thanksgiving, you don't farm enough". It was on the family farm that Lynn and Alta would start their business, Behr Enterprises. Lynn strived to provide the best grain handling, storage and conditioning products and services to local farmers and elevators. His work ethic and business ethics were never brought into question as he strived to be fair and honest as possible. Over the years they were able to help area farmers and give numerous high school kids a summer job. The business has also employed four generations of family members. From the days that Lynn and his son, Al would work together to more recently when his great-grandkids started "pushing bolts". Lynn will forever be remembered as a man with a heart of gold. Although he could be stern and stubborn at times, he always made sure that his family and those close to him were taken care of. Lynn and Alta were long-time members of St. Paul's Lutheran Church in Fulda. They were true followers of God and Lynn always believed that God had a plan for everything. Lynn passed away on Tuesday, November 1, 2022 at the Avera McKennon Hospital in Sioux Falls, SD at the age of 91.

Survivors include his wife, Alta of Fulda, MN; 2 daughters, Wanda Behr of Pipestone, MN and Nan (Dave) Henning of Fulda, MN; daughter-in-law, Pam Behr of Detroit Lakes, MN; 11 grandsons, Matt (Angie) Behr, Eric (Amanda) Behr, Joe Behr, Mickey (Carlos) Behr, Dustin Behr, Wade (Brittney) Behr, Jordan (Edith) Behr, Darin (Shannon) Henning, Chris Henning, Nick (Claire) Henning and Andy Henning; 17 great-grandchildren; 2 nieces, Delores (Gene) Pelzel and Carolyne (Bob) Brown and nephew, Dale (Elizabeth) Hardekopf. He is preceded in death by his parents, sons, Marlowe and Allen, sister, Bernice (Henry) Hardekopf and brother, Vernon (Evelyn) Behr.

Funeral services planned for St. Paul's Lutheran Church Fulda, MN at 10:30 AM on Saturday, November 5, 2022 with Rev. Shawn Ethridge officiating. The organist is Loretta Gehl. The pallbearers are his grandsons. Interment at Prairie Hill Cemetery Fulda, MN.
