Steve Loosbrock, a cherished soul who touched the lives of many, passed away surrounded by family on June 30, 2023. Born to Marvin and Lois Loosbrock on September 1, 1947 in Adrian, MN, Steve's presence brought joy and warmth to all who knew him.

Steve's journey began in Lismore, MN as the middle son of three boys. He attended St. Anthony Catholic School, where he laid the foundation for his education and values. He continued his studies at St. John's University, where he nurtured his passion for learning and personal growth. After completing his education, Steve embarked on a career as an accountant at Pillsbury.

However, it was his tenure at Blue Cross that would become his professional legacy. Joining the company in 1971, Steve established the treasury department and continued leading the department as Vice President, Treasurer until his retirement in 2002.

During his time at Blue Cross, Steve's life took a beautiful turn when he met Sandy, the love of his life. Steve and Sandy united in marriage on February 2, 1980. Together, they navigated life's joys and challenges, creating a nurturing and loving home for their two children, Pete and Jill. Steve and Sandy's life together lasted 39 wonderful years until her passing in 2019.

Steve had a passion for sports, especially golf and baseball. As an avid golfer he was a member at The Strand Golf Club in Naples. Steve enjoyed spending the last 20 years of his life splitting time between Eagan, MN and Naples, FL where he and Sandy made many memories hosting friends and family at their home in Naples.

Family was of the utmost importance to Steve, and he found immeasurable joy in being a devoted husband, father and grandfather. He leaves behind his son Pete (Jenny) Loosbrock, daughter Jill (Tommy) Stenzel, grandsons Cale and Tanner Loosbrock, and Cody Stenzel. Brother Mark (Jeanne) Loosbrock, sister in-law Vickie Loosbrock, sister in-law Deb (Mike) Sherry, brother in-law Dick Jarchow and many nieces and nephews.

Steve was preceded in death by his wife Sandy Loosbrock, brother Gary Loosbrock, parents Marvin & Lois Loosbrock, father and mother in-law, Val & Murt Jarchow, and brother in-law Tom Jarchow.

Visitation will be 4 – 7 PM, Monday, July 10, 2023 at Henry W. Anderson Mortuary, 14850 Garrett Avenue, Apple Valley, MN and one hour prior to Mass at the church. Mass of Christian Burial will be at 11:00 AM, Tuesday, July 11, 2023, Church of St. Peter, 1405 Highway 13, Mendota, MN. Steve will be laid to rest next to his wife, Sandy at Acacia Park Cemetery in Mendota Heights. In Lieu of flowers, the family prefers donations be made in Steve's name to the American Heart Association (www.heart.org). Funeral Services will be live streamed on Church of St. Peter website.

Production of 50,000 cast iron bathtubs during the fourth quarter of 1944 has been authorized for limited distribution, WPB officials announced today. The job of producing the 50,000 tubs during the fourth quarter has been assigned to five manufacturers, who produce the 50,000 tubs authorized for the third quarter. In assigning production quotas, WPB limited production to those concerns that could produce the tubs without utilizing labor in critical labor areas, officials explained.

Farm real estate tax per acre in Minnesota in 1943 was 67 cents., in 1930 - 87 cents, & in 1910- 20 cents. Wisconsin, among neighboring states, was high in 1943 at 78 cents per acre, with South Dakota low at 19 cents per acre.

He then sold and bought the property in Bloom, where he has since lived. Mr. Mohr was married in Carroll County March 25, 1886 to Margaret Ohrt, who was born in Germany, but who came to America with her parents when eighteen years of age. Photo From the Past

As to the photo in the last issue of the Shopper, showing school children on the steps of District 67 country school in Willmont Township, Frank Kemper called with a couple of identifications. The two in the top row, on the right side wearing ribbon ties, are Mary Sell and Mathilda Sell/Kemper. Mathilda is Frank's grandmother and Mary is his great aunt. They were sisters, and Mary is nine years younger than Mathilda. They were both teachers at this country school.

With the 4th of July this past Tuesday, the photo this week is from a parade in Willmont, not sure of the year. It could have been from the 1974 Diamond Jubilee parade, since many area men grew beards for a beard contest.

Theresa Marie Larson June 5, 1927 - June 22, 2023

Mass of Christian Burial was held at 12: 00 noon on Monday, June 26, 2023 at St. Boniface Catholic Church in Cold Spring for Theresa Marie Larson (nee Von Holtum), 96, of Cold Spring. Theresa was surrounded by family as her beautiful soul went to heaven on June 22, 2023. Reverend Tim Baltus will officiate. Burial will take place in the parish cemetery.

Sometimes angels walk among us. This one's name was Theresa Marie Larson.

The 3rd of 9 children to Henry and Martha Von Holtum of Lismore, MN, she was born with the heart of a true caregiver. With her strong but gentle nature, she helped raise her siblings while she discovered her love of baking.

Married to Robert Larson in 1947, they farmed in Iona, MN and started their own "bakers dozen". The first 8 of their 13 children were born while on this farm.

They moved nearby to Wilmont, MN in 1958 where they owned the café and bowling alley in town. Theresa propped babies on the pool table to keep her eye on them while she cooked and baked her way through feeding their customers. She delivered the final 5 of her baker's dozen while in Wilmont. She may have been little, but you could never underestimate her ingenuity and determination!

The majority of the family moved to Cold Spring, MN in 1969 and increased the town's population by 12. While her kids attended school, Theresa continued to feed the community her brand of goodness in many ways; as a cook at Rocori High School, an active member of St Boniface Church, a volunteer at the middle school and the Senior Center. And of course, she'd bake for them all! The town affectionately referred to Theresa as 'The Cookie Lady', as she handed out buckets of cookies (literally ice cream buckets), bread, pies, bismarks and more. She was well-known for her generosity and kind spirit, which was reflected when she won the Hometown Pride Award in 2007.

She was highly organized by sheer necessity and had a place for everything (a junk drawer Martha Stewart would love) but also embraced the times when life came before order. If maybe the house could use vacuuming, she'd instead choose to be in the stands at Rocori wrestling meets cheering on her own kids or someone else's and vacuum later. If the grass wasn't perfectly manicured that week it's because "I'm not raising grass, I'm raising children."

She has a few too many begats to list, but today her kids and their spouses, grandkids, great grandkids and great-great grandkids total over 100. She was in her happy place when any one of her family were with her, but the more the better. Imagine how many times she heard someone call out "Mom" or "Grandma" in her lifetime!

Grandkids (and great and great-great) were definitely the icing on her cake! She "grandkid-sat" as many as possible, attended every grandchild's graduation, called on their birthdays, knew each of their favorite cookies (or bread or caramel rolls) by heart and always made sure there were some in the freezer when they showed up. She'd always tell them "Just put in your order" before they visited.

She was devoted to her children but she also filled every corner of her life with people to care for: her siblings, her church, her neighbors, her grandkids, her friends, her kid's friends, her friend's kids, strangers who became friends (e.g., the Schwan's delivery person, the postal delivery person, the person she spoke to in the produce section...you get the picture). She often just sensed when someone needed help and quietly reached out her hand.

Her house and her heart were always open to anyone in need, a revolving door of people in different stages of their lives who she welcomed into her home with open arms; children with sick parents, a college student or a new employee to a business in town who needed a place to stay, providing daycare in a pinch. She was always just there, a constant, comfortable resting place. She loved unconditionally and sometimes just being with her was good for the soul.

She led by example and without fanfare. She held on to her faith and her sense of self in the worst of times and not only taught her kids to do the same, but anyone else who took notice.

While her loss in our family's lives feels huge, we could all benefit from caring for people the way she humbly and genuinely lived her life. Be someone's angel, lead by example, hold on to your faith, be selfless in your generosity...and bake (or whatever you do best) to your heart's content!
