Years Ago

Thanks to Audrey Brake for this snapshot in history!

Taken from the November 16 & 23, 1944 Wilmont Tribune

Wilmont

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hippert received word from their son, Nicholas Hippert, that he is in a U.S.A. hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Springman received word that their son, Sgt. Norbert Springman has arrived safely on an island in the Pacific.

Cpl. and Mrs. Gene Iverson and daughter, Betty, of Omaha, Neb., spent a few days at the home of Mrs. Anna Bremer and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Nic Broich have recently received two certificates, one signed by President Roosevelt, which was In Memory of Pfc. Cletus F. Broich, A.S.N. 37116578, who died in the service of his country in the European Area, July 29th, 1944. He stands in the unbroken line of Patriots who have dared to die that Freedom might live, grow, and increase its blessings. Freedom lives and through it, he lives. In a way that humbles the undertakings of most men. Franklin D. Roosevelt. The other certificate was: To certify that the President has awarded the Purple Heart to Pfc. Cletus Broich, A.S.N. No. 37116578 for Military Merit and for wounds received in action, resulting in his death July 29th, 1944. Henry L. Stimson, Secretary of War

Robert W. Michel returned home on Friday, November 17th, from Schick General Hospital, Clinton, Iowa, after receiving his certified disability discharge from the U.S. Army. Robert was the first man from Wilmont to enlist in the regular Army in July, 1935.

Mrs. Alice Hurlbut received word last week from her son, Sgt. Clarence Hurlbut, who is stationed at Douglas, Arizona. Sgt. Hurlbut was married on Monday, November 13th to Miss Rose Mary Thomas at Bisbee, Arizona. Miss Thomas is from Sacramento, Cal. Congratulations are extended to them by a circle of friends here.

The following individuals are asked to be present at the Fire Hall on Friday evening, November 24th at 7:30 for their final instructions on the 6th War Loan Drive, which got under way last Monday. Don't forget - when a solicitor calls on you for bonds, to be ready to take your share, as the quota for the village of Wilmont is $18,375, and its got to be raised from you and I. Following is the list: Fred Alberts, C. W. Becker, N. D. Bertrand, Wm. Boecker, J. J. Broich, Joe Hebbelman, Alphonse Hendel, Frank Johanning, Clarence Majeres, E. L. Meyer, L. J. McCann, John Probst, Joe Probst, Paul Probst, John Pacholl, Clem Schlichte, Joe N. Scholtes, Leo Scholtes, W. J. Sievers, Hub Slater, Ed Vaske, P. J. Wagner, Art Wulf, and George Moser.

Phelps-Drake Company, contractors of Minneapolis, who were low bidders for the 4000 feet of 4-inch water main in the village of Wilmont, completed their job Wednesday of this week, which was done in record time. Wilmont residents can be proud of the fine water mains that this village now has. Fire protection can't be beat, as we have ten fire hydrants scattered throughout the city. The ditch was dug seven feet deep to prevent freezing, which should be done in putting in any water mains. This job was also approved by the State Board of Health. Claude Zebetner, registered engineer of Ivanhoe, drew up the plans.

Wm. Schissel, who suffered a heart attack at his home early Sunday morning, was taken to the Worthington Clinic Hospital at Worthington Sunday evening. Mr. Schissel never gained consciousness and passed away Wednesday morning at 2 a.m. He was 65 years old and a resident of this vicinity for over 35 years. As yet no funeral arrangements have been made.

The boys of the purple and gold started the 1944 season off with a bang by defeating the alumni 27 to 19 in a hard fought battle Friday night. 'Swede' Olson was high point man of the evening with ten points. Dick Kuhl followed with six points and Clair Springman was high point man for the alumni with six points. Coaches Virgil Balster and Robert Olson reported that there are 15 boys out for basketball. They are Donald Olson, Richard Kuhl, Donald Pacholl, Rodney Olson, Dale Hoffman, Clarence Middendorff, Merrill Voss, Vincent Slater, James Slater, Lawrence Probst, Leon Sieve, LaVerne Pacholl, Richard Balster and Wilfred Springman. Tonight, Wednesday, the boys will meet the fast Iona basketball team at the school gym. Game to start at 7:30 sharp. Admission 15 and 25 cents. Come to this game and cheer for the home boys.

On Saturday and Sunday, November 18 and 19, there will be a raffle consisting of turkeys, geese, and ducks at Reilly's Cafe here in Wilmont. Come and try your luck in winning one or more of these fine birds.

The Catholic Daughters are sponsoring a Thanksgiving card party and dance at the school gym on Thursday evening, November 30th. Arlen Steen and his orchestra are playing for dancing. Plan to attend.

Last week I received an email from Robert Tennesen and Marcia Loosbrock as to the identification of a few more pupils in the country school photo in the June 22, 2023 Wilmont Shopper. The clerk of the school, Matt Klontz was their grandfather. The two girls in the top row on the left side are their mothers. Helen Klontz/Tennesen is the girl on the far left of the top row. The girl next to her, second from the left in the top row, is Emma Klontz/Loosbrock. They also identified the boy in the front row, second from the right, as their uncle, Henry Klontz, the girl's youngest brother. Another brother, Joseph, is listed as attending the school in the program, but they could not identify him in the photo. Thank you, Robert & Marcel

The Murray County Medical Center is an Equal Opportunity Provider & Employer.

Irene (Lingbeek) Eisele was born on July 26, 1935, to Claus and Ina (Dreyer) Lingbeek in McCook County, South Dakota, near Canistota. The family moved to the St. Peter and Nicollet area where Irene grew up on the family farm and was involved in 4-H. After graduating from Nicollet High School in 1953, Irene attended Mankato Community College and worked as a legal secretary. She married Allie A. Eisele on February 11, 1956 in St. Peter, Minnesota.

They made their home in Mankato before moving to the farm near Reading in 1968 where they raised their family. Irene cared for the calves in the dairy operation and grew gardens of vegetables and flowers. Hogs, chickens, ducks and geese were also raised on the farm. As their children grew, they were involved in 4-H, and Irene served as the Adult Leader for the Rushmore Central Hustlers for 17 years. She was involved with the Summit Lake Golden Hour project group and a member of First Lutheran Church in Worthington. Following Allie's death in 1996, Irene remained on the farm. She continued to garden and enjoyed going to her grandchildren's and great-grandchildren's activities. She enjoyed traveling, taking many trips throughout the country to see the sights. She enjoyed doing jigsaw puzzles and framed several of the finished projects. Baking bars, cookies, cakes and pies was always enjoyed by Irene, as she loved to supply the sweet treats all year-round. The family thoroughly appreciated it as well, especially during the holidays as each was given a take-home container to enjoy. Family time was valued, and Irene loved to be with them at every opportunity.

An infection resulting in a fall led to a stay at Sanford Hospital in Sioux Falls, SD, before Irene moved to Our House - Hospice of Murray County in Slayton, MN, where she passed away on Tuesday, August 22, 2023, at the age 88.

Those left to cherish her memory are son Cy (Rachel Rehm), Reading, and daughters Carol (Bill) Schreiber, Brewster; Carla (Jim) Goedtke, Slayton; and Carmen (Tom) Kamm, Rushmore; grandchildren and great-grandchildren: Matt (Natasha) Schreiber, Brayden and Hannah, Brookings, SD; Cassie (Matt) Nelson, Brennon and Damion, Worthington; Amber Kamm, Monroe, SD; Austin (Karri) Kamm and Skyler VandeKieft, Rushmore; and Tanner Kamm and Paisley, Weston and Brecken, Larchwood, IA; Kaytlin Schmidt, San Antonio, TX; honorary grandchildren: Brian (Mikki) Loosbrock, Beau and Brody, Wilmont; Darin Loosbrock, Wyatt and Abby, Iona; and Alicia (Josh) Entinger, Kadence, Noelle and Sawyer, Wilmont; brother Robert (Joyce) Lingbeek, New Ulm; sister Darlene Oelhafen, West Bend, WI; and many nieces, nephews and cousins.

Preceding Irene in death were her husband, parents, sister Marilyn Wendland, daughter Cynthia Schmidt, great-granddaughter Kinley Schreiber, honorary daughter-in-law Karen Loosbrock and brother-in-law Tom Oelhafen.

Funeral services were held at the First Lutheran Church in Worthington, MN. Burial will be at the Adrian Cemetery in Adrian.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests memorials to 4-H, Our House Hospice, the Wilmont First Responders (who were there first, as always) and the Tracy Ambulance Service.

Doc was the Wilmont veterinarian, and Ann was a homemaker.

Sisters, Sandi Krell/Olson from Davenport, FL and Gloria Krell/Olson from Vadnais Heights, MN, recently visited the Wilmont Heritage Room. They are pointing to the John and Mary Krell quilt block on the centennial quilt in the Heritage Room.
