R.E.D. Friday (Remember Everyone Deployed) was created to remind people of our heroes overseas and show that we are thinking of them.

People across the country wear red

every Friday to serve as a reminder and spread the message of how important it is that we keep our troops in our thoughts throughout the year. Get the word out and lead by example; wear RED on Fridays.

This is of interest to Hoffman & Broich families from the Wilmont area—I received an email from Phyl Broich-Wessling (pwessling@wctatel.net). She is trying to connect with the Hoffman family about the photo below of George Hoffman.

My grandma Caroline Werner Broich died before I was born, however her younger sister Rose Werner Nepl helped me with genealogy and she had this old photo book, 35 old tin type photos, and she left me make copies, some she knew some she did not. Since mid-1970's I have worked to ID them. Rose knew this one - Uncle George Hoffman she called him. I really appreciate your help and it makes me happy to get this photo to his family. My hubby and I knew Broich family from Wilmont, MN. Helena Spartz she moved farther north in MN and we visited them. Helena connected me back to my Broich family in Germany too. Anton Broich, Chris Broich, Adam Broich as well as LaParal that would be Hoffman connection. The Laparell family came from France with a rather large family settled Lancaster, NY. My great-great-grandfather Lorenz Hoffman married one of their daughters Anna Maria Laparell. A lot of children in that Laparell family and some served Civil War.

My grandparents Ted and Caroline Werner Broich lived there about 1899-early 1900 when they moved back to Carroll Co., IA. My grandpa Ted Broich brother's Adam Broich and Chris Broich remained in Wilmont area. Some of my Werner family also lived for a time there. I have copies of some old family photos that belonged to my great-grandfather Joseph Werner and Mary Hoffman. Mary was the sister of George Hoffman. I have an old photo my great Aunt ID as George Hoffman as a young man and would love to get a copy of it to his family. George Hoffman was born Lancaster, NY and come to Iowa first Winneshiek Co, IA and for a time Carroll Co. George Hoffman was my grandma Caroline Werner Broich's uncle.

Wilmont

Santa will come to Wilmont this year, by plane, if weather permits. He will have a bag of candy and goodies for each child that is in Wilmont on that day. Santa has not set a definite hour that he will arrive, but it is generally believed that it will be between 2:30 and 3:00 p.m. He intends to land at the Scholtes Airport north of town and would like to have a nice delegation of kiddies out to welcome him here and escort him into town to the pavilion where he will pass out the bags of candy. But, just a word of caution, everyone must stay off the runway until after the plane has made a landing, so no one will be injured by the plane. It is believed that this is the first daytime appearance of Santa in Wilmont by arriving by plane, and Wilmont appreciates his keeping abreast of the times. Many local businesses and citizens donated money to make it possible for Santa to distribute candy and goodies to the children of this community.

Wilmont aviators have laid out a private air field recently. Fabian Scholtes and Alfred Balk, who together own a light monoplane temporarily hangered at the Worthington municipal airport, are solving, unaided, the question of a landing field in the village of Wilmont. They have laid out an L-shaped field on the Joseph Scholtes farm on the north edge of Wilmont, the shortest leg a quarter-mile in length. The flight strips are within walking distance of town and have been thoroughly disked, packed, and leveled. Worthington fliers, visiting the field, say it will soon be as good as the present one in Worthington.

B.M. 1-c Joe Albersman of San Francisco, Cal. arrived home Saturday to spend a 20-day furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Albersman.

Funeral services were held at Our Lady of Good Counsel Church on Friday morning Dec. 15th, for Mrs. Chris Broich who passed away at her home here Wednesday morning. Burial was made in the Wilmont Cemetery. Pall bearers were N. D. Bertrand, John Schettler, Henry Lenz, Lawrence Balk, Peter Spartz, and Frank Reuscher. Catherine Nepper was born January 27, 1862 at St. Marion, Wis. On February 7, 1888 she was married to Chris Broich at Wiley, Iowa. Following their marriage they moved to Wilmont Township where they lived for four years on their prairie farm. They returned to Iowa then and again moved back to Wilmont in 1901 and settled in the new village of Wilmont, which has since been their home. Mrs. Broich has been practically bedridden for some time, having suffered a fractured hip and left arm in December of last year. She had reached the age of 83 years. Surviving, besides her husband, are three sons and three daughters. They are Nic and J. J. Broich of Wilmont and John Broich of Sleepy Eye, Mrs. Paul Sommerfield of Canby, Mrs. D. A. Keller of Aberdeen, S. Dak. and Mrs. N. K. Hazard of Long Beach, Cal. A fourth son, Christie, preceded his mother in death in 1942. Also surviving are a brother, Chris Nepper of Alliance, Neb. and a sister, Mrs. John Reicks of Raville, Neb. Heartfelt sympathy is extended to the Broich family.

The wearers of purple and gold won two games from Iona Friday nite. The second team won their game 21 to 12. Leon Sieve was high point man, getting eight points. Galles of Iona got six. The first five of Wilmont didn't have much trouble in winning the next game. Wilmont couldn't miss their shots. Everybody on the Wilmont first five made at least two points. Dick Kuhl was high with 15. The score at the half was Wilmont 30 and Iona six. The third quarter Wilmont made 14 more points and Iona none, so the score was 44 to 6. The Wilmont second team started the fourth quarter and Iona made 7 points and the Wilmont second team didn't get any. The final score was 44 to 13.

The annual Christmas program of Our Lady of Good Counsel will be given Thursday evening, Dec. 21st 8 o'clock. The first play is 'A Christmas Intruder'. Members of the cast are Clarence Middendorff, Joseph Arens, Ramona Bethards, Georgine Moser, Esther Probst, Junior Pacholl, Wilfred Springman, Richard Sieve, and Deloris Kuhl. The Intermediate grades will present the one-act, 'Saint Francis of Assisi'. The characters are: Owl - Thomas Probst; Chickens - Mary Ann Lewis, Shirley Probst, Clara Bertrand, and Elaine Heinrichs; Mice - Virgil Probst, Robert Scholtes, and Walter Stuntebeck; Turkeys - Marlene Hebbelman & Kathleen Hebbelman; Sparrows - Doris Galles, Shirley Gerber, Jeanne Bertrand, and Florence Vaske; Bluebirds - Maria Bethards, Kathleen Gerber; Cat - Agnes Balster; Dog - Robert Heinrichs; Fox - Richard Johanning; Rabbits - Donald Hendel & Donald Voss; Squirrel - James Hoffman; St. Francis - Donald Bertrand; Bethlehem Star - Margaret Cuddigan; St. Joseph - Darrel Schlichte; Mary - Joyce Schissel; Shepherds - LaVern Pacholl, Dale Hendel, & Thomas Slater; Three Kings - Gerald Sieve, Alan Gerber, & Charles Probst. Choristers in Costume singing Christmas carols between plays are: Myron Voss, Louella Voss, Marie Beckman, Catherine Pacholl, Rodney Scholtes, Harold Bertrand, Mary Jo Vaske, Clarence Middendorff, Junior Pacholl, Marilyn Olson, Carol Jean Pacholl, Esther Probst, Georgine Moser, Lucille Vortherms, Francis Vaske, Robert Balster, Harry Moser, Joan Slater, Carol Ann Springman, Marcella Vortherms, and Edna Gallas. The songs, 'The Tidings Came At Midnight' and 'Joy to the World' will be sung by the entire cast to conclude the program.

A large crowd attended the Christmas program of District 84 Wednesday evening. Ardes Lebens is the teacher.

A deal was completed some time ago whereby Clem Schlichte became the owner of the Ed Olson residence. Mr. and Mrs. Schlichte plan to move into their home next week.

George P. Moser and Howard Sevedy of Worthington motored to Rochester Wednesday morning of last week where George Moser purchased a Aronca Chief Airplane. Mr. Sevedy flew the plane back to Worthington where Mr. Moser will keep it stored for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Spartz moved their household goods from Worthington to the house vacated by the Schissel family and are now nicely settled. We welcome the Spartz family.

Miss Evelyn Jueneman returned to her home Tuesday after being employed at the P. J. Wagner home the past three weeks.

Sharon Scholtes entertained some of her little friends at her birthday party Saturday afternoon. Those present were: Margaret Arens, LaVonne Scholtes, Norma & Leona Sieve, Carol Slater, Jeanne and Clara Bertrand, Janet Majeres, Eleanor Vaske, Maria and Ramona Bethards. Ida Probst, Donna Scholtes, Ivaline Schlichte, Corrine Sievers. and Pauline Heinrichs.

Mr. and Mrs. August Balster are spending Christmas in Chicago with their children.

The photo this week is of the Phillips 66 station that was located on the south side of Hwy. 266, across the street from OLC Church. This was probably taken in the late 1930's or early 1940's. Take note of the older car on the right side and the older gas bulk truck on the left side. There was also a couple of trees on each side of the gas pumps on the approach.

Andrew and Alexa Heitkamp were married in 2018 and in 2019 became parents. Tillie was born on 6/13/19 and suffered a traumatic brain injury during birth which resulted in a spastic quadriplegic cerebral palsy diagnosis.

Andrew is from Adrian MN and Alexa is from Selby SD and met and live in Sioux Falls where they take Tillie to several different therapies each week. Tillie has been accepted into a treatment program in Monterrey Mexico that has been approved for treatment of Cerebral Palsy. There has been a clinical trial study done on Cerebral Palsy children which has shown promising results. The treatment alone is $55,000 plus lost wages and travel expenses for the 30-day treatment.

Please consider a donation to support this family as they work to improve the life of their child.

Kevin Ray Boots, 63, of Worthington, MN passed away on September 27th, 2023 in a tragic farming accident.

Kevin was born in Adrian, MN on September 24th, 1960 to Marlyn and Helen (Homan) Boots. He grew up in Worthington, MN alongside his 3 brothers and 2 sisters. In High School, he worked at his uncle's truck stop (Bob's Truck Stop). After High school, he married and moved to the St. Cloud, MN area where he worked and started a family. During this time, he had 3 beautiful daughters. In the 90's, he started work at Mavo Systems in Minneapolis, MN where he met the love of his life, Michelle Lauber. They united in marriage in Ham Lake, MN on November 16th, 1996. They made the Coon Rapids, MN area their home, and welcomed another beautiful daughter to the family, giving Kevin four daughters (still no son like he always wanted).

Kevin spent most of his career as a Union Laborer in demolition. Towards the end of his career he worked for Bolander and Sons and was able to retire in 2018 after working so hard to retire at an early age. He then moved back to Worthington to live out his dreams on his acreage. During his retirement, he was able to do all the things he loved most, this included deer and pheasant hunting, hog hunting in Texas, coffee with the guys at Uncle Daryl's, and of course working in the fields during harvest time. He also spent much of his time working on all kinds of projects around his home and tinkering in the shop. Recently his favorite projects involved anything using his skid loader. Most of all, he loved spending time with his family.

He will be remembered as the strongest man in the world, an avid gun collector, and a proud member of Nobles County Pheasants Forever. He was everything. He was the glue that kept everything together and the rock to lean on. He will be missed by all, especially by his dog Maizey, who was his loyal, loving companion.

Kevin is survived by his beloved wife Michelle of 27 years, daughters Heather (Jesse) Zamora - Coon Rapids, MN, Jenn (Chris) Hackett - Rice, MN, Erika Boots - Sartell, MN, and Madison (Dave) Boots-Heath - Champlin, MN. Grandchildren: Salena, Khloe, Cruz, Liliana, and Kane. Father Marlyn Boots, Mother-in-Law Jackie Dingley, and siblings Jackie Ailts, Lee (Susan) Boots, PJ (Harlan) Klein, Tim Boots, and Pat Boots. Along with his many nieces and nephews who he cherished so much. Preceded in death by his Mother Helen (Homan) Boots and Father-in-law Richard Dingley.

Kevin will be forever missed, but his memory will live on through his family and his many projects.

In lieu of flowers, donations preferred to Nobles County Pheasants Forever or family.

Visitation at the Westminster Presbyterian Church in Worthington earlier.
