Jill Haworth Lutterman, 71, of Worthington, MN, passed away peacefully at her home.

Born and raised in Worthington, Minnesota, Jill graduated from Worthington High School in 1971. She later attended Yankton College, where she pursued her passion for the arts as an art major. She later moved back home and began her career as a graphic artist at the Daily Globe in Worthington, where she worked for many years.

During that time, she met a man at Max's, a local bar in Worthington, named Marlan Lutterman, who she happened to graduate from high school with, but never gave the time of day to back then. We aren't sure if this one was "love at first sight", or a bet with Marlan's buddies, but either way, it ended in marriage on August 27th, 1988, and they later welcomed what would be their only child, Hayley, in July of 1989.

Jill lived a life full of warmth, laughter, and unwavering love. She had a gift for making others feel seen and cherished, and her generous heart touched everyone she met. Her smile was beyond contagious, and you could always count on her to have a mint, a Butterfinger, or a Snickers tucked in her purse for anyone who wanted one, especially her grandkids who knew they could count on her to have them every time they saw her. We are also pretty sure the last few years, she lived solely on cookies and ice cream for breakfast, lunch, and dinner. She was very proud of that!

Above all, Jill adored her family. She was the proud mother of her only child, Hayley, and the most devoted cheerleader anyone could ask for. She supported Hayley through every chapter of life with love, and encouraged any choice she ever made in life. Her joy only grew as her family expanded to include her beloved son-in-law, Sam, and her treasured grandchildren, Marlee, Karic, and Gentry, who she loved unconditionally.

Jill was stubborn, spicy, a true spitfire - and she was deeply, beautifully full of love. She will be remembered for her strong spirit, her boundless affection, and the light she brought to those lucky enough to know her. We will miss her.

Jill is survived by her daughter Hayley, son-in-law Sam, and grandchildren Marlee, Karic and Gentry; sister Jane, brother-in-law Ed, nieces and nephews, Jenny, Elissa and Bill.

She was preceded in death by her adoring husband Marlan Lutterman; beloved parents, William and Elna Haworth, and beloved in-laws George and Genevieve Lutterman.

Funeral services were held at Westminster Presbyterian Church in Worthington, MN, with Pastor Galen Smith officiating with burial at the Worthington Memorial Gardens Cemetery.

Kris Weidert (of Lismore), physical therapist assistant at the MN Veterans home in Luverne and a member of AFSCME union Local 2225 is the winner of their NEVER QUIT service award. The award recognizes public service workers who go above and beyond the call of duty to make their communities better. Residents call Kris the "nice lady." She goes above and beyond to provide a positive attitude and bring a smile to the residents. Not to mention, she gives the best hugs! Her sense of humor is contagious. Congratulations, Kris... keep being a "giver" taking pride in your work!

YEARS AGO—written by Audrey Brake— Thanks Audrey for all these memories!

Taken from the January 10, 1946 Wilmont Tribune

Wilmont

M.A.M. 3-3 Victor Lebens of North Island, off the coast of San Diego, Cal. came Friday to spend a two-week leave with his wife and other relatives.

Edward Rusho of Seattle, Washington came Thursday to visit indefinitely in the home of his grandmother, Mrs. Alice Hurlbut and other relatives. Rusho recently arrived home from overseas where he spent three years in China of the four years in service. He has been honorably discharged. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Rusho (Addie Hurlbut) and lived in this community until the family moved to the coast city.

Pvt. Orville Schlichte, in a letter to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clem Schlichte, stated he has returned to Camp Carson, Ind. from Whiting, Indiana where he visited with his brother, Marvin Schlichte and family.

Burglars, who broke into the office of the Wilmont Farmer's Elevator Company sometime Friday night or Saturday morning, made off with about $25 in cash, according to Fred Alberts, local manager, in one of those break-ins seldom productive of clues readily followed. The thieves gained entrance by forcing two doors. First the lock on one of the pairs closing the elevator driveway was knocked off. Then the office door was forced open leading into the office. The safe was opened by the time-honored method of knocking off the combination dial and driving in the lock, according to Sheriff L. P. Deuel. Entrance was also gained at the Brake and Johanning Garage that same night. But, they only made entrance through the outside door and were forced to leave by the barking of dogs.

The Wilmont Liquor Store moved to its new location, known as the John Lebens Cafe, which was purchased some time ago. Considerable work was done in the interior of the building which will make it an up-to-date place. The moving took place the first of the week and is now open for business.

Six inch drain tile are hard to get. We are expecting a carload of 6-inch Clay tile in a few days. Save money by taking them from the train car. C. W. Becker Lumber Co.

Victory Clothing Collection ends Thursday, January 31st. Together with our allies, the uninvaded countries of Canada, Australia, and New Zealand, we have contributed millions of pounds of clothing, sufficient to aid more than 25,000,000 victims of war overseas. We must do more. We must not forget other millions in most dire need from Holland, Norway, Greece, Poland, China, the Philippines, Italy, Czechoslovakia, France, Belgium, Yugoslavia come the same cry - can't you send more clothing? Everyone can give at least one garment, a pair of shoes, a piece of bedding toward the national goal of 100,000,000 garments. You are invited to enclose a goodwill letter with your contribution of clothing as an adventure in international friendship.

Margaret Stuntebeck has gone to Minneapolis where she will attend the State University.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Probst and family have moved from the rear rooms of the pool hall in with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Hebig. Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Balster, who recently purchased the Sievers-Probst Pool Hall have moved into the rooms vacated by the Probst family.

Banns of the approaching marriage of Leona Probst, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Probst, and Ralph Fuerstenberg, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Fuerstenberg, were announced Sunday at Our Lady of Good Counsel Church by the Rev. Fr. Urban Buchheit.

Anton Broich, who has been seriously ill the past week in the home of his daughter, Mrs. Paul Probst, was removed to the Slayton Hospital Sunday for treatment.

Wayne Scholtes, 4 and son of Mr. and Mrs. Fabian Scholtes, who fractured both legs when he was hit by a car the forepart of November, has been temporarily removed from his cast. Wayne spent a month following the accident in the Worthington Clinic where he was suspended by pulleys and had been in the cast since the 7th of December. Little Wayne's many friends hope he will soon be able to walk again.

Mr. and Mrs. John Krell have been informed that their daughter, Sister M. Berchman (Celia Krell) of Rochester, underwent a major operation at St. Mary's Hospital there Friday.

There will be a card party and dance at the Wilmont School gym on Thursday evening, January 17th. Jim Lunhof's will furnish the music for dancing.

Margaret Spartz, who spent the past several months in the home of her sister, Mrs. William Michel and other relatives returned to St. Paul Friday.

Mrs. Emma Middendorf received a message from Belleville, Ill. early Friday morning advising her of the death of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Herman Middendorf on Thursday evening. Funeral services were conducted there on Monday morning.

Donna Rae VandeBerg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. VandeBerg, is at her home following an operation for appendicitis she underwent recently at a Worthington hospital.

Anyone wishing to donate to the Infantile Paralysis Drive can leave the donations with either J. J. Broich, local chairman, First National Bank, W. J. Sievers or P. J. Wagner. The drive ends January 31st.

Mrs. Leo Spartz, sons Allan and Tommy, and Mrs. Pete Spartz visited Monday afternoon with the former's husband, Leo Spartz, who is a patient at a Slayton hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Voss received word from Adrian that a daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Honermann (Alvina Voss) at the hospital there on Sunday, January 20th.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Einck and Marianne attended a gathering in the home of her mother, Mrs. Anne Spartz near Iona. The occasion was the first family get-together in honor of Frank Spartz, who had been in the Army and discharged, Robert Spartz recently discharged from the Navy, and Lorraine Spartz of Berkeley, Cal., who was spending a vacation at home.

The Summit Lake Champions 4-H Club held their second meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walt Lawrence. A demonstration was given by Beverly Rosenberg on "How to Wrap a School Lunch." Lunch was served by Mrs. Lawrence, which consisted of ice cream, cake, cookies, and cocoa. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Juneneman February 1st.

Lismore

Leo Diekmann arrived home last week having received his discharge from the Army.

Don't forget the Hard Time card party and dance tonight (Thursday) in the public school auditorium. Pinochle and 500 will be played. Prizes for the best Hard Time costumes.

The Lismore basketball team lost to the Adrian Public School team Friday night by a score of 46 to 23.

St. Kilian

Gordon Schneider, U.S.N. of San Diego, California, who has finished his basic training, is spending a leave with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Nick Schneider.

Vows were exchanged by Lorraine Hoffman and Lawrence Halbur of Iona at the St. Kilian Catholic Church Wednesday morning, January 16th with Rev. H. J. Tennesen officiating. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Hoffman. She was attended by Gertrude VonHoltum of Lismore. The bridegroom, son of John Halbur of Iona, was attended by the bride's brother, Tom Hoffman. Bouquets of mixed flowers decorated the tables for the 60 guests at the wedding dinner in the home of the bride's parents. Upon their return from a honeymoon in Iowa and Nebraska, Mr. and Mrs. Halbur will be at home near Iona.

On Tuesday evening, January 15th, there will be a card party and dance at the St. Kilian Hall. George Boomgartner and his band has been booked for this dance.

Since we just had Memorial Day this week to remember our fallen veterans, the photo this week is of a group of Nobles County men who were registrants for Army duty. They left the court room in Worthington and boarded a bus for Des Moines, Iowa where they would be inducted in the Army on March 5, 1942. Among these 31 men was Cletus Broich (4th one from the left in the second row) from Wilmont, son of Mr. and Mrs. Nic Broich. He went overseas just after the invasion of France. He received his training and was in the Coast Guard until just before he was killed, when he was assigned to the infantry in preparation of the drive.

He was killed in action at the Battle of St. Lo on July, 12, 1944. We remember these men who gave the utmost so that we can live in a country where we have the freedom to do almost anything we want to do. God bless them.
