YEARS AGO—written by Audrey Brake— Thanks Audrey for all these memories!

Take from February 7, 1946 Wilmont Tribune

Wilmont

Richard Kuhl, Seaman 3-c, who has just finished his boot training at San Diego, California spent a 5-day leave with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Kuhl. He returned there Monday.

Arthur Sibell has returned home from Camp McCoy where he received an honorable discharge from the Army. Here he joined his wife, the former Jeanetta Hoffman and daughter, Joyce, in the Joe Hoffman home. After a few days visit with relatives here, the Sibells will go to Alexandria to visit with his parents and other relatives.

Six servicemen from one family is quite a record. They are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. John Duclos of Freeport, Illinois and grandsons of Mrs. Frances Hoffman of our city. They are S-Sgt. Anthony Duclos who entered the service in October, 1942 and received his training at Camp Halifax, Cal. He was stationed in New Mexico and now is home with his wife and sons after 3 years in service. John Duclos entered service in March, 1943 and received his basic training at Farragut, Idaho. Cpl Joseph Duclos entered service in January, 1941 and received his training at S. Louis, Mo. He is now home after serving 3 1/2 years overseas. In September, 1941 he was married to Edna Breswick at Manchester, England. Henry Duclos entered service on December 8, 1941 and received his training at Great Lakes, Ill. Later he joined the Seaman Guards and was transferred to San Diego, Cal. and later received a medical discharge. Edwin Duclos entered service November 14, 1944 and received his basic training at Great Lakes, Ill. as a Seabee and is now stationed in Okinawa. Lawrence Duclos entered service in August, 1942. He received his basic training in Great Lakes, Ill. He is a gunner mate third class and was on the U.S.S. Chicago which was sunk after which he was put on the U.S. S. North Carolina. He took part in the battles of Saipan, Guam, the Coral Sea and Marianas. He is now on the U.S. S. North Carolina somewhere in the South Pacific. The parents live on a forty-acre farm north of Freeport and have 13 children. They were former residents of Wilmont, having lived here about 25 years.

The Veterans of Foreign Wars and Auxiliary entertained at a card party Sunday evening at the parish hall. The prizes were awarded to Frank Balster, Jr., and Mrs. William Brake, 1st in 500 and 2nd went to Fred Balk and Fr. Urban Buchheit. In Pinochle the 1st prize went to Elizabeth Slater and Mrs. Joe Sieve, 2nd to Donald Bertrand and Frank Krogman of Lismore. The proceeds will go to the March of Dimes fund.

The weather man is really changeable this week. On Monday it was foggy all day and night. On Tuesday morning it started to rain and continued until about the middle of the afternoon when it started to snow and by night the wind went sky high, and we had one of those old-fashioned blizzards looking us in the face.

Wednesday morning saw no change in the weather, and it was really going to town. Two employees of the Interstate Power Co. of Fulda were stranded here Tuesday night and are still here at this writing. No mail this morning and by the looks of it, no mail today. Monday's rain and ice made the streets and sidewalks almost impossible to walk on. Some people were seen crawling to a building to get back on their feet again. After all, why complain, lucky no one was caught out all night that is from here.

There will be a double-header basketball game at the Wilmont Catholic School gym on Monday evening, February 11th. The first game, between Larry Balster's married men and Johnny Albersman's single men will get under way at 7:30 sharp, and the second game will follow immediately after the first game. This game will be between Iona Catholic High School team and the Wilmont Catholic High School team. If you want to see some real action, come and see these two games.

Card party and dance at school gym, Thursday, Feb. 14. Music by Jolly Five.

Mrs. Ray Honermann, who has been in ill health in recent weeks, was taken to a Worthington hospital Sunday where it is expected she will have to undergo a major operation.

Dianne Jean, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Teddy Voss, was baptized Sunday at the Our Lady of Good Counsel Church by the Rev. Fr. Urban Buchheit. Sponsors were Bernice Lutmer of Lismore and Jackie Voss. A dinner followed this with guests, Mrs. A. Runge of George, Iowa, Mrs. Josephine Voss, Herman Voss and sons, Wilfred and Donald.

Adrian Hebig has been on the sick list the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. George Probst were honored on their 25th wedding anniversary Sunday night when a group of relatives gathered at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Krell, and surprised them for the occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. John Cuddigan, daughter Peggy, and son, Joe, left Friday for Los Angeles, Cal. where they expect to visit indefinitely.

Mrs. Thomas Newman, daughter, Alice, and son, Richard, have returned to their home in Hammond, Indiana after visiting a week in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hippert and other relatives. Her daughter, Mary Newman, who visited several months here with her grandparents, accompanied them home.

A group of relatives gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hebbelman Sunday night to help them celebrate their wedding anniversary which was February 5th. The occasion, a triple event, was also in honor of the wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. William Boecker on February 4 and the wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Al Hebbelman of Adrian on February 20th.

Those present, besides the honored guests, were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lais and family, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ella and family of Slayton, and Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Honermann and family of Adrian. The three honored couples were presented with a gift in remembrance of the occasion.

Tom Cruik will have a public auction sale on Thursday, February 14 as he has rented his farm which is located 4 miles north and 1 1/4 miles east of Wilmont.

Lismore

Don't forget the basketball games between Lismore and Magnolia and also the dance following by George Boomgartner's Orchestra tonight (Thursday) in the public school auditorium.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Loonan were pleasantly surprised Sunday evening at the Frank Noonan home. The event being their 50th wedding anniversary. Cards were played after which a delicious lunch was served which was brought by the guests. Homer and Esther were presented with a beautiful coffee table as a remembrance of their anniversary.

The photo this week was taken inside the Wilmont Municipal Liquor Store which was located in the former Balster Electric Building on the west side of main street. In December of 1939 The Wilmont city council decided to operate a municipal liquor store. In January of 1940 the council appointed a committee to try to lease a building and take applications for a manager. The council had 19 applications and on February 22, 1940, they held a special meeting and decided to hire Joe Hebbelman as manager and Jack Probst as assistant manager. The city bought out Matt Michael's liquor stock and moved the liquor store into this building and ran the business from here until 1945. Jack Probst became the manager in 1941 and held this position for 30 years, retiring in 1971. On the left is Joe Hebbelman and on the right is Jack Probst.

JOHN JOSEPH KELLEN, of Adrian, passed away on Friday, June 13, 2025, after a two-year battle with stomach cancer. He was born March 9, 1963, in Adrian, to Clarence and Audrey (Bruns) Kellen. He graduated from Adrian High School and later from Worthington Community College.

John married the love of his life, Darcy Klaassen, on August 15, 1987, at the Salem Reformed Church in Little Rock, IA. The couple farmed on the family farm east of Adrian. They moved into Adrian in 2022.

He attended Salem Reformed Church and was a member of St. Adrian Catholic Church in Adrian. John had a deep love for farming, a passion that guided his life and brought him immense fulfillment. He took great pride in working the land and found joy in the simple, honest work that came with each season. This love of farming was something he shared proudly with his sons, Nick and Josh, passing down his knowledge, work ethic, and values through countless hours spent together in the fields. His greatest joy, however, was watching his grandson Dominic grow up. Those moments with his sons and grandson were among his most cherished. His legacy continues through them, rooted deeply in love, tradition, and the soil he so dearly loved. John was not afraid to work, as he held multiple off-farm jobs over the years, including Sailor Plastic, Buss Construction, Al Wolf, and Viessman Trucking. He was the owner and operator of Kellen Barn Washing for 12 years. Until he was unable to continue working, he worked at Champion Homes in Worthington (Highland).

He also enjoyed shooting pool with his pool team, which he had been doing since high school. He cherished spending time with loved ones and found great joy in vacations with friends and family. Some of his most treasured memories included a trip to England, Cancun, and the Dominican Republic, as well as taking convertible trips in their Camaro, where he could enjoy the open road and sunshine. He also enjoyed spending time at their cabin on Lake Shetek with their lake family. One of his most unforgettable experiences was the trip to Jamaica in March 2025 for his son's wedding, which the doctors didn't think would be possible for him — a celebration he talked about often with a smile.

John is survived by his wife, Darcy Kellen, Adrian, MN; two sons, Nick (Maddie) Kellen, Adrian, MN; and Josh (friend, Emily Andersen) Kellen, Reading, MN; grandson, Dominic; three sisters, Barb (friend, Brad) Kellen Pingel, Mankato, MN; Teresa (Charlie) Hauser, Eagle, CO; and Mary (Bruce) Brunk, Rushmore, MN; father-in-law, Robert (friend, Marlys) Klaassen, Little Rock, IA; three sisters-in-law, Dawn (Layton) Arends, Little Rock, IA; Doreen (Curtis) Krahling, Ashton, IA; and Joanne Klaassen, Sibley, IA; and many nieces & nephews.

He was preceded in death by his parents, sister, Jane Kellen; mother-in-law, Melvina Klaassen; and a brother-in-law, Travis Klaassen.

Memorial services were held at the Salem Reformed Church in Little Rock, IA, officiated by Pastor Daniel Stanley. A private family burial will take place later.

The Nobles County Recorder's office is offering a new FREE service—Land Notification—which will monitor any documents being recorded on your property.

It is with a heavy heart that we announce the passing of Carolyn Graf, age 77. She passed away peacefully on June 14, 2025 at her home in Portland Oregon.

Carolyn was born August 10, 1947 in Nobles County Minnesota, the daughter of Gaylord Graf and Dorothy Graf. She attended elementary and intermediate school in Brewster, and graduated from Brewster High School with the class of 1965. After high school Carolyn studied at Minnesota State University Mankato, and graduated with her Bachelor of Science in Sociology/Psychology. She moved to Portland Oregon and attended Portland State University, earning her Masters in Social Work.

In her early years, Carolyn worked at local Minnesota farms (bean walking and de-tassling corn), as a bowling alley pin setter, malt mixer at Mable's Cafe, lifeguard, and bartender. After graduation, she became a social worker for the State of Oregon, eventually being promoted to supervisor, branch manager, and then Manager of Child Welfare until her retirement in 2010. Even after retiring, Carolyn continued as a contract employee of the state, and board member of the Oregon Foster Parents Association to support the causes she was most passionate about: helping children, civil rights and social action, health and human rights, poverty alleviation, and social services.

Carolyn was an ardent supporter of Habitat For Humanity, and volunteered numerous hours building houses for those in need. Through Habitat, she learned many construction skills, including: framing, siding, flooring, roofing, hanging doors & windows, and painting. From an early age, she participated regularly with the Daughters of the American Legion and American Legion Auxiliary. Volunteering at the TAC rummage sale in Worthington, MN. was one of her favorite volunteer activities. Since the early 1980's, Carolyn taught Sunday School at various Lutheran Churches. Always the family historian, she took a great interest in mapping out her family tree. Her favorite leisure activities were: swimming, sewing, gardening, picnics, and spending time with family.

Carolyn is survived by her husband (Don), two sons (Edward and Joseph), two sisters (Luana and Deanna), a nephew (Tony), and niece (Arika). She was preceded in death by her beloved mother (Dorothy Graf), father (Gaylord Graf), and two sisters (Janine and Nadine).

A memorial will be held at 1:30PM on June 27th 2025 at Benson Funeral Home in Worthington Minnesota, followed by a burial service at Summit Lake Cemetery presided over by Reverend Jeanette McCormick.
